CLIMAX CAUSED BY PINCHOT

DEPOSED FORESTER HAS MANY FRIENDS WHO WILL TAKE UP CAUSE.

SITUATION SEEMS CRITICAL

Both Houses Contain Friends of Pinchot—Senate Is Friendly to Cannon—Ballinger Says He Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The present week will probably decide whether there will be a prolonged conflict involving the President of the United States within the ranks of the republican party in congress. Conditions have been tending in that direction for some time, but instead of adding to the impulse the dismissal of Mr. Pinchot apparently has had the effect of causing a halt. It has prompted senators and members to consider the possibilities of a continuation of the controversy and present indications are of a more specific tendency than were those of a week ago.

Situation Is Critical.

There is no denying that in some respects the situation is critical. Mr. Pinchot has a large number of personal friends and admirers in both houses who would be inclined to take up his cause if favorable opportunity presents and if they could do so without endangering the peace of the party and their own political welfare. On the other hand, many are saying that the personal fortunes of Messrs. Ballinger and Pinchot are of little importance compared to the great question of the preservation of party harmony, and those who take this view are urging the necessity of preventing any sharp conflict in congress on the lines of difference between the Secretary of the Interior and the former chief of the forest service.

Whether or not the conservative counsel of this element shall prevail will depend upon the course of events in congress during the next few days. There is no doubt that the investigation of the Interior Department and forest service will proceed along the lines indicated by the Jones-Humphrey resolution, but it would be competent for the committee tee to either broaden or narrow the inquiry. If the advice of many leaders is followed, however, this inquiry will be restricted as much as possible, especially now that, as an official factor, Mr. Pinchot is eliminated from the dispute.

Senate for Cannon.

The question will receive its next attention on the floor of the Senate. The present situation is this: The house has adopted the resolution of the appointment of the committee by the house itself rather than by the speaker as was originally provided. Without awaiting the official notification as to the action of the house the senate committee on public lands has decided to report the resolution in such form as to authorize the selection of the house members by the speaker. Unquestionably this action was taken with the intention of complimenting the speaker, and it will be reported to the senate.

Speaker Cannon, it is said, feels that it would be impolitic for him to take advantage of this condition and override the expressed order of a majority of the house and it is probable therefore that the senate will take such action as will steer clear of a controversy with the house. It is now said that the speaker himself would prefer that the house should select the committee. The senate committee on public lands will report its resolution tomorrow and it is probable discussion will begin not later than Tuesday.

The senate calendar is still lean and aside from the Ballinger-Pinchot resolution the program is not favorable for any legislation of importance this week. The house will proceed with the consideration of the army appropriation bill. By Tuesday night the fortification appropriation bill will have been reported and it will be taken up.

Ballinger Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—I have nothing to fear from a thorough determination of facts, said Secretary Ballinger yesterday. I may have committed errors of judgment in one way or another, as any man might while in the public service, but I am firm in my knowledge that no improper motive has ever influenced me in any action I have taken.

The secretary remarked that he not only wanted to have his own conduct investigated, but desired also to have the same course followed "in relation to the other fellow."

He declined to make any comment regarding the action of the president in dismissing from the public service Gifford Pinchot. The secretary said he had endeavored to have the joint resolution providing for a congressional investigation worded so that the investigation would be as thorough as possible.

INSURGENT'S OBJECTIONS

FEDERAL ACT AFFORD REFUGE

Bitterest Criticism Is Over Federal Incorporation Scheme—President's Argument Is Base of Opposition.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The attitude which the progressive Senators and representatives take toward President Taft's legislative program as outlined in his last message is this: That the proposed voluntary incorporation act would afford a refuge for trusts which may be ordered dissolved because of violations of anti-trust law.

That taking away from the interstate commerce commission the right to prosecute in the courts through special counsel defense of its orders and compelling the commission to turn all such cases over to the department of justice would curtail the usefulness of the commission to the shipper seeking relief.

That the provision permitting pooling without regulation by the commission by merely filing the pooling agreement with the commission would seriously menace the whole rate control scheme.

They are opposed to these provisions as they stand and will seek to remedy what they consider to be the defects. As for the rest of the program, they regard it as long steps forward, some of which are handicapped, however, by lack of machinery to put them into full execution. One particular defective omission, in the opinion of the progressives, is in connection with the proposal to let the commission hold up advances in rates. It is pointed out that if the commission is to have but sixty days in which to investigate and hold a public hearing on the subject, it will be physically possible to block but a few advances in rates in the sixty days at its disposal. This is better understood when it is considered that the roads file with the commission more than 3,000 changes in rates and classifications each month.

As to the feasibility of the proposed commerce court the progressives themselves are divided. Only a few of them are inclined to criticize this proposal seriously. In the matter of giving the commission authority to initiate investigations and orders of limiting stock and bond issues, of giving shippers the right to route shipments, and of prohibiting one line from holding the stocks and bonds of competing lines, they give the president credit for having made important forward steps with which they are heartily in accord. In the case of limiting the issuances of stocks and bonds, they would go a step further than the president goes, by providing funds and machinery for the valuation of all railroads.

STUCKY IS FOUND GUILTY

Jury Finds His Purposes Were Immoral

Ottawa, Kan., Jan. 10.—Rev. W. M. Stuckey, the ex-minister of Williamsburg, who has been on trial charged with abducting Lorena Sutherland, his 17 year-old parishoner, was found guilty by the jury. The case will probably be appealed.

Stuckey was found guilty on both charges, those of abduction of the girl, for immoral purposes and for abducting her for while slave purposes. The penalty is from one to five years each count.

When the verdict was read Stuckey appeared to be very nervous.

His wife, who stood by him through out the ordeal, sobbed audibly and their two children were also in tears. He was taken back to jail.

Officers of United States Attorney at Lawton and Western District at Stake.

Washington, Jan. 8.—That some determination will be reached concerning several appointive offices in Oklahoma is believed certain at a conference with President Taft and members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation Monday. Matters pertaining to the new state pending settlement will be gone over thoroughly, it is believed, and some definite action decided on. The two offices of United States attorney for the western district and the Lawton land office are at stake. For the former it is believed Frank Gillette of El Reno and Robert A. Lowry of Stillwater are the two between whom a decision must be made. For the land office George Crosby and A. W. Maxwell are the two candidates in the field. Maxwell is the present incumbent and he wants to be re-appointed.

Indications here are that Congressman Morgan, Cash Cade, and Dennis Flynn are supporting Judge Gillette for the appointment of district attorney, while Congressman McGuire favors Lowry. The same lineup is apparent in the matter of the land office, with the addition of Congressman Creager favoring Maxwell.

PENSIONS FOR INDEPENDENTS.

Red Cross Director and Mine Workers' President.

Cherry, Ill., Jan. 9.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the American Red Cross, and Duncan McDonald, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, issued a statement today in answer to criticisms of the relief work and defining the necessity for a permanent relief plan. The total disbursements to the people of Cherry since the tragedy are shown to be $111,800. The dependants are now given a weekly average cash grant of $5.75, the schedule running up or down according to the number of children.

The report estimates that there is approximately $145,000 available for relief work. It is the proposal of the Red Cross to place a sum of $400,000, which will be required, it is estimated, in the hands of trustees for the care of the sufferers until they again become able to sustain themselves. This form of pension will enable children to be educated and widows to live comfortably and in the meantime the relief operations can be brought to an end.

SAYS PULPIT IS OBSOLETE.

Dr. Felix Adler Points to Decreasing Church Attendance as One Proof

New York, Jan. 9.—"Is the pulpit obsolete?" asked Dr. Felix Adler, the lecturer and author, tonight, and answered, "Yes," on his own question. "Falling church attendance," continued the speaker "testifies to the failure of the pulpit. Formerly views on important subjects were headed by the clergy. Now we read the views of bankers.

"The best men are no longer going into the pulpit. The age is practical and men want visible results. In turn, the influx of inferior men diminishes regard for the pulpit.

"Oratory as an art is dying out. Now they will not stand more than twenty-five minutes preaching."

Dr. Adler believes that in more ethics, less theology and fewer diffused discourses on general subjects lies the cure of the clergy plight.

Judge Hook Considers.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—After hearing the concluding arguments in the application of three Oklahoma railroads for an injunction to restrain the state from enforcing a two-cent fare law and maximum freight rate, Judge William C. Hook, of the federal court, today took the case under advisement and allowed twenty days for the filing of briefs.

A Word of Appreciation

WE THINK THIS AN OPPORTUNE TIME to extend to our Friends and Customers our sincere thanks for their patronage during 1909. The past year has been a successful year for us; the New Year finds us better prepared to serve you. We wish for all, a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

TAFT-ROOSEVELT 1912 QUESTION BEING DISCUSSED

POLITICAL TALK FLOWS FREELY IN WASHINGTON.

Seasoned Politicians Say Will Be

Dead Easy to Re-Nominate

Taft in 1912.

Washington, Jan. 9.—It is easy for one to conjure up from the political events of the last week a situation in the republican party in 1912 similar to that famous period when Gen. Grant returned from abroad in 1880 and plunged the party into the greatest fight in its history. On the other hand, it is easy to draw a picture from these same events similar to that of 1900, when William McKinley received every vote in the national convention at Philadelphia, or in 1904, when Theodore Roosevelt was the unanimous choice of the convention which met in Chicago.

Is it to be Taft after a fight in which another world tour will play a part similar to that of 1890? In other words, are Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt coming to fight, or is Mr. Roosevelt coming "back from Elba" to seek to overthrow the man who was his candidate in 1908, or will it be Mr. Taft as the candidate in 1912 with a practically solid convention at his back?

Mr. Taft is a candidate for renomination in 1912. He has made no announcement, but that is not necessary. He is before the people of this country as a candidate now, and the seasoned politicians of the republican party do not doubt that he will be nominated with or without opposition. If there is opposition it will be crushed. If there is no opposition it will be because he has court-ageously met party emergencies just as he met the recent one when he took Mr. Pinchot out of office, regardless of whether it would please Mr. Roosevelt, the muck rake magazines and the reform element.

FOILS TRAIN WRECKERS.

Georgia Firemen Tied to Rails by Negroes.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 9.—Because Daniel J. Mathews, a fireman of the Central of Georgia railroad, refused to give four armed negroes a switch key he was tied face downward on the main line of the Central road at an early hour this morning and now lies in a critical condition at a local hospital, being knocked from his perilous position a few minutes after he was attacked by an east-bound passenger train.

The negroes were plotting to wreck a passenger train.

Announcements

For County Treasurer.

The World of Labor.

Arbitration under the Erdman act
will settle the wage controversy between the Illinois Central and the telegraphers in its employ. This is the first of the many wage controversies that will be considered by the railroad officials, and is said to mean that in all others arbitration
will be used to settle the differences.
The Illinois Central case will be the precedent. The questions to be arbitrated are the number of hours in a day's work, wages to be paid, and rates for overtime and Sunday work.
The carters employed by the Great Central Railway Company have gained
one point in the dispute which threatened to cause a strike in Manchester, Sheffield, Leeds, Nottingham
and other large centers in England served by that railway. The men asked that their hours and rates of pay should be made to correspond with those given to London and Northwestern men, and they complained that requests to interview the directors had always been refused. The cause for complaint on the latter ground has been removed by the arrangement of a meeting.

A new labor agreement which will have an important effect on the future of the diamond trade has just been formed at Amsterdam, Holland,
the chief diamond cutting center of the world. Under the new agreement the manufacturers are allowed to introduce 2,200 apprentices into the factories in the next five years. The consent of the union to the introduction of the large number of new apprentices was given only after the Amsterdam manufacturers had agreed to follow the New York City manufacturers in recognizing an eight-hour day.

Life is a Funny Thing.

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his times is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings by the balance of our species. In his infancy he is an angel;
in his boyhood he is a devil, in his manhood he is everything from a lizzard up; in his studies he is an utter fool; if he raises a family he is a chump; if he raises a small check he is a thief, and then the law raises the devil with him; if he is a poor man he is a poor manager and has no sense; if he is a rich man
he is dishonest, but considered smart;
if he is in politics he is a grafter and a crook; if he is out of politics we can't place him, as he is an undesirable citizen; if he goes to church
he is a hypocrite; if he stays away
from church he is a sinner and damned; if he donates to foreign missions he does it for show; if he does not he is stingy and a tight wad.
When he first comes into the world
everybody wants to kiss him—before he goes out everybody wants to kick him. If he dies young there was a great future before him; if he lives
to a ripe old age he is simply in the way and living to save funeral expenses. Life is a funny road, but we all like to travel it just the same.—Ex.

Gaynor Gives Shocks.

New York, Jan. 9.—Mayor Gaynor
maintained his reputation for political whimsicalities tonight by appoint-
to succeed Dr. Thomas A. Darlington as health commissioner. The appointee is Ernest J. Lederle, who resides at a position as consulting sanitary engineer with the state and local water supply boards, which paid him $15,000 a year. His position as health commissioner carries a salary of half that amount. Mr. Lederle is an expert chemist, but he is not a doctor of medicine.

OF LABOR.

1060 Operators in Oklahoma and 1013
Receive Less Than Seven Dollars a Week.

That the telephone operators of the state as a whole are greatly underpaid, and at an unequal ratio with other lines of work when the degree of skill is compared, is the assertion of Charles L. Daugherty, commissioner of labor. In speaking of the matter Saturday, Mr. Daugherty referred to his annual report for last year in which an extensive report on the condition of telephone operators is made, and said:

"A thorough investigation of the condition of the operators employed by the telephone companies of the state was made by my department
last year. It was found that while the sanitary conditions were good,
the wages paid the help were absolutely inadequate when it was considered that many of the girls had no home, and in order to make a bare living, were compelled to live in small, poorly ventilated rooms, enjoying no advantages which would permit them to better themselves.

"In many instances, in order to eke
out an existence they were compelled to stint themselves in food and clothing, and after their hard day's work, many were forced to do their own cooking, washing and menial labor.
"It is therefore easily seen that instead of having opportunities to better their mental, moral, and physical growth—opportunities that should particularly belong to girls who must earn their own living—the contrary is more likely.

"There are employed in Oklahoma
1,060 operators, and of this number 1013 of them receive less than $7.00
a week, although they are compelled to work seven days a week at an average of nine hours a day. A most objectionable feature of their work is that many of them are compelled to leave duty between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock at night.

"In my investigation of the state, I found that practically every class of labor in it had an opportunity to save a certain portion of their wages.
This, however, would not apply to the telephone operators because of the small salaries which they receive, placing their cost of living at a point which renders it practically impossible to save from their wages with the present standard of prices."

Charge Is Smuggling Chinese Into
the United States.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—Miss Laurie Livaudais, member of a prominent French family here, and three associates charged with conspiracy and participating in the smuggling of Chinese are today making a desperate attempt through counsel to resist being taken to Brownsville where they are under indictment.

The girl admits making a midnight
trip to Lake Ponchartrain with Nic Strotekes, alleged ring leader of the conspirators and having seen Chinese landed from a schooner which brought them from Matamoros, Mex., via Galveston. A government spy who worked with the smugglers, is the chief witness. The authorities say they expect to take the accused to Brownsville for trial.

Reported That J. P. Morgan Is Promoting $200,000,000 Scheme.

Christiana, Jan. 10.—It is reported that J. P. Morgan of New York and the Cutscherbank of Berlin are planning a world-wide trust in the nitrate industry with a capital of $200,000,- 000. It is understood that the syndicate intends to purchase all the saltpeter mines in Chile as well as the nitrate works in Norway, where $20-000,000 is invested. The scheme, it is said, has not passed the stage of preliminary discussion and skepticism concerning its success prevails
here.

The leading Norwegian nitrate men are now in Berlin, where the international administrative board is hold-

Knife Blade in His Nose 22 Years.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 10.—Believing
he was suffering from catarrh, E. D.
Stegall, Southern Pacific roundhouse

cian who attended him removed from his nose a knife blade two inches long. Stegall suffered an accident twenty-two years ago when the blade entered his nose, where
it had been ever since.

ENGINEER STARTS IN SCATTER-ING MONEY.

Car Coupler and Is Now Getting Rid of It.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The wild extrava-ganzas of Henry C. Ostermann, Chicago's champion champagne opener, and big tip giver, are still the talk of the waiters and bartenders
in the restaurants and buffets he has visited within the last few days. He is one of the few customers they have known who have tossed $10 bills about as most tipsters do dimes and quarters. And now it is understood that Ostermann will turn the golden stream on Paris.

Ostermann's announcement, made the week before Christmas, that he was about to descend on Paris and show the boulevards what real spending is, has brought sorrow to many gay lighted cafes. At that time he admitted that he had understood that there were some pretty fast sappers
in Paris, but he modestly said that he felt good for a month at least there and that he was sure that almost all Paris would know he was in town after a few hours.

"I don't speak French," he said,
"but let me get a few friends and there will be something doing from Montmartre to the Place Vendome."

While he was making this declaration his waiter in Dejonghe's was bringing in silver tubs filled with ice in which were resting silver tipped bottle of French titles. And this same waiter was handed a tenner
for his trouble. Then more wine followed, and more, and more, and every time the waiter's personal fee was forthcoming. Finally Ostermann decided that the orchestra was too far away and a $100 bill made the members all agree they were really too far away from the side of "such a fine, liberal man." So the entire orchestra took their instruments and played for the special benefit of the Ostermann party until the 1 o'clock ordinance came into effect and the place had to be closed. Then Ostermann lined up every waiter in the place and each received a bill. Some of them hadn't been able to do a single thing for the giver during his stay in the restaurant, but they all took the tips without hesitation.

Ostermann on the last day of November appeared in the Burns Hotel
in Detroit, and before he left every waiter, bartender, bellboy, cham-bermaid and scrub woman in the place had all the money they wanted for their Christmas shopping. He would buy a bottle of wine, lay down
a twenty dollar bill and leave the change. He was so sorry for an old woman who was washing the floor in the corridor that he gave her a twenty and she almost fainted. She prays for him every night since, so she says, so perhaps it was not extravagance. He met a minister he had known in former years and made him a present of $50 for his church.
The news of the doing spread all over Detroit and a guard of detectives attached themselves to his train to see that no one got his whole roll at one time.

A few months ago Walla Walla, Wash., was dazzled by the gold and
yellowbacked bills he threw into the air at various restaurants and saloons. On his return to Chicago Ostermann said that the story had been swelled up, but in the light of more recent spendings it is easily believed that all the truth perhaps was not told of his gay life in Walla Walla.

Ostermann formerly was an engineer. With an inventive mind he modeled a car coupler which made good as soon as it was offered. He formed a company which bears his name, located at Pullman, a suburb
of Chicago, where large returns are being received for its manufacture.
The directors of this company last week told Ostermann he would have to buy or sell. The notoriety their president had brought them by his lavish tipplings was too much. They were afraid of the credit of the concern. Ostermann sold. He received

PRESIDENT DETERMINED TO OUST "UNDESIRABLES"

TAFT'S FRIENDS WARN HIM OF INSURGENTS.

Insurgents and Progressives Will Oppose Second Term in White House.

By Tav
Special to News.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Warned by his friends that the real insurgents
of the house and the real progressives of the Senate will oppose his nomination for a second term in the White House, President Taft has determined to rid the republican party
of all "undesirables" without further ado and thus avoid interference later on.

The action of the president in reaching a final decision as to progressives and insurgents is thought to be directly due to information supplied by Senator Aldrich, Speaker
Cannon and other reactionary leaders, with whom the president is co-operating and in whom he has the greatest confidence. The import of their advice was to the effect that the progressives and insurgents are involved in what practically amounts to a conspiracy to interfere with Mr.
Taft's ambition to succeed himself
as president, this being the fourth plot against the chief executive that has been uncovered by the reactionary sleuths since March 4 last.

After having given the matter
much careful consideration, the president has come to the conclusion that
the views of his friends are well founded, and he has decided to act without further waste of time.

"All those insurgents who remained on the warpath after the passage of the tariff bill must be driven out
of public life," is the command that has been issued from a standpat headquarters. "They are preaching democratic doctrine abroad; the land and are therefore democrats. Annihilate them to the last man."

The writer can give no clearer
idea of the nature of the warfare
that is now waging, than by reviewing, briefly, the rules that are being followed by the standpaters in their treatment of the outlaws:

1. Recommendations of insurgents as to appointments to federal positions within their districts are receiving no consideration.
2. Officeholders appointed upon the recommendation of insurgents
are to be gradually supplanted by men satisfactory to the "standpat"
element of Congressional districts.
3. Every possible endeavor is being made to secure the defeat of insurgent candidates in the republican primaries.

4. In instances of insurgent candidates winning the congressional nominations from standpaters, the latter are to bolt and allow democrats to win.

5. Insurgents are to be prevented from securing the appropriation of public money for the construction of public buildings or bridges
within their districts.

6. There are to be decreased appropriations for all government institutions, such as agricultural experiment stations, arsenals, navy yards, forts, etc., located in districrepresented in congress by insurgents. Economy will be cited as reason decreases.

7. Appropriations for waterway improvements in progressive territory are to be limited, and if possible, prevented.
8. Bills providing for progressive legislation, when introduced by insurgents, will be referred to committees backed by Speaker Cannon,
where the measures will die.

9. Insurgents desiring the floor for the purpose of pointing out the iniquities of the standpat organization will not be recognized by the speaker of the House if recognition
can possibly be avoided.

10. Insurgents in the House have been appointed to unimportant committees.

By working systematically along
the lines indicated, the standpaters
hope to humiliate the progressives
in Congress, weaken them in the eyes of their constituents at home, and to finally retire them to private life.

The insurgents and progressives are practically at the mercy of their foes now. While in Washington they are in the enemy's country. They are doing little more than to lie close
to their guns, all communication between them and the white house having been severed. In the war of politics, the public's money is the ammunition which counts, and of this the standpaters are in complete possession.

The insurgents have not given up hope, however. They believe that whatever reverses they sustain now, they will more than make up for

place in the congressional elections
this fall, particularly in the west, which the insurgents regard as their
"home" territory.

The pastors and the laymen of the several churches of Ada are requested to assemble at the First Presbyterian church, Tuesday at 7:15 p. m. for a conference with representatives of the Laymen's Movement from Oklahoma City concerning the Great Laymen's Conference to be held in Oklahoma City Feb. 15-17. This meeting is for the purpose of beginning preparation for this conference. The general committee of the organized Laymen's Movement for the United States arranged some time ago for a series of conferences to be held in every part of the nation and or a great Laymen's Congress to be held in Chicago in May. Noted leaders of the several denominations of the nation are to have places on the program of these conferences. The meeting in Oklahoma city in February, for which plans are now being made by the several churches of the city and of the state, should be one of the greatest of the series and should bring a great forward movement and as signal inspiration to all the churches of the great, new state. It is expected that the citizens of Ada will not be lacking in interest in this movement since they have not yet been found laggards when an important interest made its appeal to them. Let every man interested in the welfare of the church and of christianity be present at the meeting Tuesday evening. Mr. H. B. Johnson and Rev. J. E. Disch of Oklahoma City will be present to speak and counsel with us.

COUNTY COURT TAKES UP JANUARY CIVIL DOCKET

A. L. BULLOCK OF ROFF IS THE JUDGE TODAY.

The January term of county court took up the civil docket this morning.

The case of Gertrude Case vs. Duke Stone is being tried this afternoon. This case was tried during the last term of court and the county judge being disqualified of his own motion, the attorneys were asked to select another judge to try the case. Judge A. L. Bullock of Roff, was agreed to by the attorneys.

The county judge has been busy today with probate matters.

EXHIBITION BEGINS TODAY.

Pictures to Be Shown at Christian Church This Afternoon.

Beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon the pictures which are intended for the walls of the public and normal schools will be shown at the Christian church as was stated in these columns a few days ago. An admission of 10 cents and 15 cents will be charged to see this collection of pictures which represents two hundred subjects, and the proceeds derived from the exhibition will be used to purchase the pictures for the walls of the local schools.

They may be seen from 3 to 5 today and from 7 to 10 tonight.

Zelaya to Be Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Former President Zelaya of Nicaragua, if his extradition from Mexico is asked for, will be treated as any other foreign citizen in the later republic, existing treaties between Mexico and Nicaragua and the Mexican laws on the subject being taken into careful consideration. This was the declaration of Senor De la Barra, ambassador from Mexico to the United States, who arrived here today, on his return from his country.

Absolutely no change in the friendly feeling between Mexico and United States has taken place, according to Senor De la Barra. The two countries are as one, he asserted, in their desire to bring about a resumption of peaceful conditions in Nicaragua.

The ambassador tomorrow will pay his respects to Secretary Knox and possibly arrange a date for a conference on the future joint action of Mexico and the United States as regards Nicaragua.

MADRIZ ORDERS THE PUNISHMENT OF SLAYERS

PROCEEDINGS TO FIND RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

Wants to Know Who Murdered Groce and Cannon—President Grieved at Diaz's Death.

Managua, Nic., Jan. 9.—President Madriz is greatly cast down by the death of General Fornos Diaz.

General Diaz was a warm friend of Madriz, and it would have been possible for the president and the representative of the provisional government to go over the whole situation with some expectation of an amicable agreement.

Dr. Madriz is hopeful of the early appointment of a delegate to take the place of General Diaz, but he fears that the new peace envoy will represent only the liberal element of the revolutionists. Word has come to him that the conservatives, led by General Chamorro, mean to continue fighting and he has been warned that Chamorro and his army are advancing through the department of Chontales toward Managua. The government, however, is ready to oppose the advance at La Mango.

According to the advices received here a split has occurred in the ranks of the revolutionists, and it is believed that one faction will reject all overtures of peace. President Madriz has ordered court proceedings to be instituted for the purpose of punishing whoever was responsible for the execution of the Americans, Groce and Cannon. As ex-President Zelaya does not appear officially in the records of the court martial, the responsibility cannot be fixed on him. But possibly some official will be found guilty, probably Salomon Selva, the prosecuting attorney who officiated at the trial. He may, however, produce a prosecuting attorney who officiated at the congress might order the trial of Zelaya.

Ballinger, Tex., Jan. 9.—F. B. Kimbler, living in the northern part of this county, killed his wife, six year old son and his three-year-old daughter, seriously wounded his niece, aged 20, and ended his own life by cutting his throat today.

Kimbler had been in bad health, but got up at the usual time and was assisting his wife in making fires. He stepped out and secured a hatchet ostensibly to cut kindling. Returning to the house he said:

"Wife, we have all got to go," and killed her. Going over to the bed, where the children were still asleep, he attacked them also. Then he entered his niece's room and struck her. By this time a nephew of Kimbler was aroused and he and the wounded young woman made their escape.

Returning to the room where his wife lay unconscious on the floor, Kimbler used a pocket knife to end his own life. Mrs. Kimbler and the baby lived for five or six hours, but the six-year-old boy was instantly killed. The young woman's recovery is doubtful. Kimbler was a successful farmer.

EXPLAINS COTTON SHORTAGE

Dallas Agricultural Expert Before House Committee.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The cotton crop for the year 1909 is going to be the smallest since 1899, according to a statement of W. D. Hunter of Dallas, Tex., expert of the Department of Agriculture.

"It is due," said he in addressing the House committee on agriculture today, "to the weevil in Louisiana and in portions of Arkansas and Mississippi and to the extreme dry weather in Texas." The boll weevil, he declared, would undoubtedly cause a redistribution of production of cotton, first in large areas. What were large centers of production formerly, he said, were going to show a reduction, and more than that, there would be a redistribution of the smallest plantations.

"In the large areas," he continued, "the production is going to fall off. According to all we know about fighting the boll weevil cotton can not be planted profitably in black lands with poor drainage. But the soil and other conditions in certain parts of almost every plantation in the South will permit the planter to continue to raise cotton profitably despite the boll weevil. Recent experiments with a new kind of poison—powdered arsenate of lead—seem to indicate that even where the weevil is most numerous a certain degree of control may be obtained.

STANWOOD, COTTON MAN, DEAD.

Well-Known Buyer at Boston—Formerly Operated at New Orleans.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 10.—Francis Coolidge Stanwood, a well known cotton buyer of this city, died early this morning at his home here. He had been ill since Thursday. Mr. Stanwood was born Sept. 29, 1851, and was the son of Lemuel Stanwood and Carolina Louisa Coolidge. He attended the Boston Latin school and shortly after graduating went South as cotton buyer for Ellerton L. Dorr & Co. of State street. Later he formed a partnership with his brother, Lemuel Stanwood. From 1873 to 1886 Mr. Stanwood made his home in New Orleans and Galveston, returning to Boston in 1886, when his brother's death necessitated his taking charge of the Boston business.

IS JUST TO PLEASE THE EYE.

Wiley Rejoices Use of Bleached Flour Is Decreasing.

Washington, Jan. 9.—"It is just to please the eye. No good can come from making flour white," declared Chemist Wiley of the department of agriculture. "You can not find any great amount of bleached flour going into interstate commerce at all now. I can tell the change now by the bread. Every time I cut a loaf of the bread I rejoice because instead of its having the whiteness of a corpse, it has that beautiful delicate amber tint that all bread ought to have. The electricity was the agent which produced the bleaching material."

"Several cases are now pending against millers, and I do not betray any confidence of the millers when I say that the fight on this case is made chiefly by the men who are selling the machinery. The millers themselves would not fight it for a moment if left to them, but the men who are making this bleaching machinery have been hurt. The bakers of the United States were always opposed to bleached flour. They knew the flour was injured by the process."

Rome, Jan. 10.—A servant girl in Turin became possessed lately of a religious mania. The woman who employed her found her crucified.

The girl, after placing thorns in her hair and inflicting a severe wound on her chest, nailed her feet and her left hand to the boards of her bed and spent the night suffering tortures. When discovered she was unconscious. She was taken to a hospital in a critical condition. She said that out of love for Christ she voluntarily crucified herself.

JEFFRIES BLUFFS CREW.

Wanted to Sleep and Did Sleep Regardless of Regulations.

Because railroad and Pullman employees were afraid of the retired champion pugilist of the world, James J. Jeffries, and his party, which showed at Convention hall Tuesday night, were allowed to sleep in the private sleeper in the Chicago Great Western yards until nearly noon, Tuesday.

The Jeffries company played in Des Moines Monday night. The Great Western was engaged to handle the party to Kansas City. The show continued too late to allow a regular train to carry the company. Accordingly a special train was engaged. The Great Western officials made the special as light as possible, with but a baggage car and a sleeper, and started it out with one of the fastest engines on the road. The train made a good run, knocking two or three hours off the regular schedule.

When Kansas City was reached early Tuesday morning the negro porter awakened the party. Jeffries was interrupted in a dream where he was demolishing "Lil A'uh" Johnson, and didn't like the porter's bad manners. One look from "big Jeff" and the negro porter was scared out of the car. The Pullman conductor pleaded in vain, but a clenched fist and that crouching attitude which made the big pugilist famous, terrified him.

The Pullman conductor didn't accept the challenge. The great Western official and employees were all notified, but it was unanimously decided not to interfere, and Jeffries, Gotch and the other members of the party slept on, side-racked in front of the Grand Central depot, until 11 o'clock.—Kansas City Journal.

J. M. BRUNER IN ADA.

Former Popular Ada Citizen, Who Now Resides in Fayetteville, Ark., Looking After Local Interests.

Mr. J. M. Bruner of Fayetteville, Ark., is again in the city looking after his city and farm property interests. His friends are always glad to see him at the home of his former residence where he served so valiantly as a town builder during the pioneer days. Mr. Bruner continues to do much for the city, for since the removal of his family to Fayetteville, Ark., for the better health of Mrs. Bruner he has been instrumental in favorably advertising abroad the splendid home advantages of this section. Joe, when happened upon, looked every inch the happy prosperous citizen, and in return for the suggestion of compliment, stated that he was feeling very optimistic, that Ada and section represented permanent prosperity and happiness for a great many people, and that he was intending to engage much time this year in locating good Arkansawyers here around.

Date Crawford in City.

Attorney Date Crawford was in Ada transacting business before the county court. During a little business visit with the News, he related some of the comical sides to the late bank robbery at Stonewall. Mr. Crawford said, partly jestingly, the other earnestly, Mr. Kitchens, our officer is one good one in Pontotoc county at any rate, for he has the saving grace of not boasting and telling the truth, for he frankly states that he was very near the robbers with a steel ball gun, but was careful to remain perfectly still behind a telephone post. There is this about Stonewall, it is either taking on metropolitan proportions or else is regarded as an out of the way hamlet, and at any rate, it is known that its banks have the money. I would not be surprised that the professional criminals were preparing a general rendezvous around in the section of Ada, since it appears to be the general impression that Pontotoc county affords the maximum safety and minimum protection against criminals as far as being caught is concerned.

WILL BUILD BIG DAM.

New York and Boston Capitalists Interested in Mississippi River.

Keokuk, Ia., Jan. 9.—It was announced here yesterday that a syndicate of New York and Boston capitalists have undertaken to finance the erection of the second largest dam in the world, which will span the Mississippi river at this point. Contracts have been taken by three St. Louis concerns to furnish power from the dam to nearby cities and the work of building the dam is to begin immediately under the supervision of the war department. The estimated cost of the dam is $15,000,000.

Advice

We have recently established in the News Building a REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE and LOAN AGENCY and active and constant attention will be given to all business entrusted to our care. We propose to line up our agency along with the growth and advancement of the city, and we want to make your business acquaintance.

Real Estate

We make a specialty of PUSHING property listed with our agency. We do not make a note of it on a memorandum, and forget it, but use printers ink to promote its early and sure sale. It pays to advertise. We preach that sort of doctrine and practice it as well. Property listed with us will be advertised, and if there is anything doing at all in the real estate transfers we are busy too. We have at the present date some pretty bargains in Ada stuff which you may see advertised in another column of this issue of the News. If you want to sell list with us today.

Insurance

The WEAVER FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY was the first established in Ada, and during these nearly 10 years every claim has been promptly adjusted, to the entire satisfaction of the policy holder. This is not a bad record. This is true because only the best and strongest companies have been represented. Among these are: The Royal, New York Underwriters, the Niagara, and the Phenix. These are as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar. PROMPTNESS is the watch-word. You can make no mistake by selecting any of these to carry your risk.

Loans

We are at present arranging to represent leading loan companies, and expect to be prepared at an early date to take care of applications for loans on city or farm property

CLIMAX CAUSED BY PINCHOT

Both Houses Contain Friends of Pinchot—Senate Is Friendly to Cannon—Ballinger Says He Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The present week will probably decide whether there will be a prolonged conflict involving the President of the United States within the ranks of the republican party in congress. Conditions have been tending in that direction for some time, but instead of adding to the impulse the dismissal of Mr. Pinchot apparently has had the effect of causing a halt. It has prompted senators and members to consider the possibilities of a continuation of the controversy and present indications are of a more specific tendency than were those of a week ago.

Situation Is Critical.

There is no denying that in some respects the situation is critical. Mr. Pinchot has a large number of personal friends and admirers in both houses who would be inclined to take up his cause if favorable opportunity presents and if they could do so without endangering the peace of the party and their own political welfare. On the other hand, many are saying that the personal fortunes of Messrs. Ballinger and Pinchot are of little importance compared to the great question of the preservation of party harmony, and those who take this view are urging the necessity of preventing any sharp conflict in congress on the lines of difference between the Secretary of the Interior and the former chief of the forest service.

Whether or not the conservative counsel of this element shall prevail will depend upon the course of events in congress during the next few days. There is no doubt that the investigation of the Interior Department and forest service will proceed along the lines indicated by the Jones-Humphrey resolution, but it would be competent for the committee tee to either broaden or narrow the inquiry. If the advice of many leaders is followed, however, this inquiry will be restricted as much as possible, especially now that, as an official factor, Mr. Pinchot is eliminated from the dispute.

Senate for Cannon.

The question will receive its next attention on the floor of the Senate. The present situation is this: The house has adopted the resolution of the appointment of the committee by the house itself rather than by the speaker as was originally provided. Without awaiting the official notification as to the action of the house the senate committee on public lands has decided to report the resolution in such form as to authorize the selection of the house members by the speaker. Unquestionably this action was taken with the intention of complimenting the speaker, and it will be reported to the senate.

Speaker Cannon, it is said, feels that it would be impolitic for him to take advantage of this condition and override the expressed order of a majority of the house and it is probable therefore that the senate will take such action as will steer clear of a controversy with the house. It is now said that the speaker himself would prefer that the house should select the committee. The senate committee on public lands will report its resolution tomorrow and it is probable discussion will begin not later than Tuesday.

The senate calendar is still lean and while the Ballinger-Pinchot resolution, the program is not favorable for any legislation of importance this week. The house will proceed with the consideration of the army appropriation bill. By Tuesday night the fortification appropriation bill will have been reported and it will be taken up.

Ballinger Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—I have nothing to fear from a thorough determination of facts, said Secretary Ballinger yesterday. I may have committed errors of judgment in one way or another, as any man might while in the public service, but I am firm in my knowledge that no improper motive has ever influenced me in any action I have taken.

The secretary remarked that he not only wanted to have his own conduct investigated, but desired also to have the same course followed "in relation to the other fellow."

He declined to make any comment regarding the action of the president in dismissing from the public service Gifford Pinchot. The secretary said he had endeavored to have the joint resolution providing for a congressional investigation worded so that the investigation would be as thorough as possible.

Most Criticism Is Over Federal Incorporation Scheme—President's Argument Is Base of Opposition.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The attitude which the progressive senators and representatives take toward President Taft's legislative program as outlined in his last message is this: That the proposed voluntary incorporation act would afford a refuge for trusts which may be ordered dissolved because of violations of anti-trust law.

That taking away from the interstate commerce commission the right to prosecute in the courts through special counsel defense of its orders and compelling the commission to turn all such cases over to the department of justice would curtail the usefulness of the commission to the shipper seeking relief.

That the provision permitting pooling without regulation by the commission by merely filling the pooling agreement with the commission would seriously menace the whole rate control scheme.

They are opposed to these provisions as they stand and will seek to remedy what they consider to be the defects. As for the rest of the program, they regard it as long steps forward, some of which are handicapped, however, by lack of machinery to put them into full execution. One particular defective omission, in the opinion of the progressives, is in connection with the proposal to let the commission hold up advances in rates. It is pointed out that if the commission is to have but sixty days in which to investigate and hold a public hearing on the subject, it will be physically possible to block but a few advances in rates in the sixty days at its disposal. This is better understood when it is considered that the roads file with the commission more than 3,000 changes in rates and classifications each month.

As to the feasibility of the proposed commerce court, the progressives themselves are divided. Only a few of them are inclined to criticize this proposal seriously. In the matter of giving the commission authority to initiate investigations and orders of limiting stock and bond issues, of giving shippers the right to route shipments, and of prohibiting one line from holding the stocks and bonds of competing lines, they give the president credit for having made important forward steps with which they are heartily in accord. In the case of limiting the issuances of stocks and bonds, they would go a step further than the president goes, by providing funds and machinery for the valuation of all railroads.

Ottawa, Kan., Jan. 10.—Rev. W. M. Stucky, the ex-minister of Williamsburg, who has been on trial charged with abducting Lorena Sutherland, his 17-year-old parishioner, was found guilty by the jury. The case will probably be appealed.

Stucky was found guilty on both charges, those of abduction of the girl, for immoral purposes and for abducting her for while slave purposes. The penalty is from one to five years each count.

When the verdict was read Stucky appeared to be very nervous.

His wife, who stood by him through out the ordeal, sobbed audibly and their two children were also in tears. He was taken back to jail.

Washington, Jan. 9.—That some determination will be reached concerning several appointive offices in Oklahoma is believed certain at a conference with President Taft and members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation Monday. Matters pertaining to the new state pending settlement will be gone over thoroughly, it is believed, and some definite action decided on. The two offices of United States attorney for the western district and the Lawton land office are at stake. For the former it is believed Frank Gillette of El Reno and Robert A. Lowry of Stillwater are the two between whom a decision must be made. For the land office George Crosby and A. W. Maxwell are the two candidates in the field. Maxwell is the present incumbent and he wants to be re-appointed.

Indications here are that Congressman Morgan, Cash Cade, and Dennis Flynn are supporting Judge Gillette for the appointment of district attorney, while Congressman McGuire favors Lowry. The same lineup is apparent in the matter of the land office, with the addition of Congressman Creager favoring Maxwell.

PENSIONS FOR INDEPENDENTS.

Cherry, Ill., Jan. 9.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the American Red Cross, and Duncan McDonald, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, issued a statement today in answer to criticisms of the relief work and defying the necessity for a permanent relief plan. The total disbursements to the people of Cherry since the tragedy are shown to be $111,300. The dependants are now given a weekly average cash grant of $5.75, the schedule running up or down according to the number of children.

The report estimates that there is approximately $145,000 available for relief work. It is the proposal of the Red Cross to place a sum of $100,000, which will be required, it is estimated, in the hands of trustees for the care of the sufferers until they again become able to sustain themselves. This form of pension will enable children to be educated and widows to live comfortably and in the meantime the relief operations can be brought to an end.

SAYS PULPIT IS OBSOLETE.

Dr. Felix Adler Points to Decreasing Church Attendance as One Proof.

New York, Jan. 9.—"Is the pulpit obsolete?" asked Dr. Felix Adler, the lecturer and author, tonight, and answered, "Yes," to his own question. "Falling church attendance," continued the speaker, "testifies to the failure of the pulpit. Formerly views on important subjects were headed by the clergy. Now we read the views of bankers.

"The best men are no longer going into the pulpit. The age is practical and men want visible results. In turn, the influx of inferior men diminishes regard for the pulpit."

Oratory as an art is dying out. Now they will not stand more than twenty-five minutes preaching."

Dr. Adler believes that in more ethics, less theology and fewer diffused discourses on general subjects lies the cure of the clergy plight.

Judge Hook Considers.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—After hearing the concluding arguments in the application of three Oklahoma railroads for an injunction to restrain the state from enforcing a two-cent fare law and maximum freight rate, Judge William C. Hook, of the federal court, today took the case under advisement and allowed twenty days for the filing of briefs.

Seasoned Politicians Say Will Be Dead Easy to Re-Nominate Taft in 1912.

Washington, Jan. 9.—It is easy for one to conjure up from the political events of the last week a situation in the republican party in 1912 similar to that famous period when General Grant returned from abroad in 1880 and plunged the party into the greatest fight in its history. On the other hand, it is easy to draw a picture from these same events similar to that of 1900, when William McKinley received every vote in the national convention at Philadelphia, or in 1904, when Theodore Roosevelt was the unanimous choice of the convention which met in Chicago.

Is it to be Taft after a fight in which another world tour will play a part similar to that of 1900? In other words, are Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt coming to fight, or is Mr. Roosevelt coming "back from Elba" to seek to overthrow the man who was his candidate in 1908, or will it be Mr. Taft as the candidate in 1912 with a practically solid convention at his back?

Mr. Taft is a candidate for renomination in 1912. He has made no announcement, but that is not necessary. He is before the people of this country as a candidate now, and the seasoned politicians of the republican party do not doubt that he will be nominated with or without opposition. If there is opposition it will be crushed. If there is no opposition, it will be because he has court-ageously met party emergencies just as he met the recent one when he took Mr. Pinchot out of office, regardless of whether it would please Mr. Roosevelt, the muck rake magazines and the reform element.

FOLLS TRAIN WRECKERS.

Georgia Firemen Tied to Rails by Negroes.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 9.—Because Daniel J. Mathews, a fireman of the Central of Georgia railroad, refused to give four armed negroes a switch key he was tied face downward on the main line of the Central road at an early hour this morning and now lies in a critical condition at a local hospital, being knocked from his perilous position a few minutes after he was attacked by an east-bound passenger train.

The negroes were plotting to wreck a passenger train.

MICHIGAN SENATOR MENTIONS FORMER SECRETARY AS PINCHOT'S SUCCESSOR

A SWEET PRAISE INTERVIEW

Senate Will Not Allow Pinchot to Appear in Probe—Upper Branch of Congress to Allow Joe Flight Alone

Washington, Jan. 10.—The Senate has sent a modified form of the House's Ballinger-Pinchot investigation resolution back to the House. After formally agreeing on Saturday to amend the resolution so as to direct that the Speaker shall appoint the House members of the committee the Senate leaders on Sunday informally agreed to let the provision of the resolution stand as the insurgents and Democrats in the House had succeeded in changing it.

The leaders, however, agreed on one very important change which the insurgents and democrats had also forced upon the house machine, and that was the provision by which Mr. Pinchot or Mr. Glavis might have been represented at the investigation, in the event that the investigation is turned in their direction. The senators agreed to strike this out. It removes the grave possibility of the former Secretary of the Interior, James R. Garfield, appearing in the investigation as counsel for Mr. Pinchot or of Prosecutor Henry appearing as counsel for Mr. Glavis. The political effect of two such staunch Roosevelt proteges doing battle for Pinchot or Glavis over a conservation matter is the very thing that the House and Senate leaders want to avoid.

Senate Praises Garfield.

For weeks the administration's friends in Washington and Ohio have been endeavoring to detach Mr. Garfield from Mr. Pinchot's cause. At first there was talk of running him for governor of Ohio, and today William Alden Smith, senator from Michigan, a notorious standpatter and follower of the machine, nominated Garfield as the best man who President Taft could name to succeed Pinchot as head of the Forest Service. He gave out an interview on this subject, full of sweet praise for Garfield after a conference with the president's brother, Charles P. Taft. Senator Smith admits that it is not likely that former Secretary Garfield would accept that position of division chief after having served in the Cabinet, but he thinks it would be a deserving compliment if the president were to make the tender of Mr. Pinchot's place to Mr. Pinchot's friend and attorney. Senator Smith also lauds Mr. Pinchot as "one of the most honest, earnest and deserving men in the public service, whose work in the conservation of our natural resources can not even be approximated," and he wants the president to name "a man of equal intelligence, courage and character."

These are regarded as some of the indications that Congress is hearing from the country on the Pinchot affair, and the conservatives in both houses are keeping the soft pedal strapped down tight.

At the same time, President Taft is working out a message on conservation of resources which, it is understood, will go the full limit, as far as the question of conservation, per se, is concerned, and will advocate some wholesome legislation for the future protection of many of the resources.

It is thought that Gifford Pinchot, having learned the trick from that pastmaster in this kind of warfare, Mr. Roosevelt, will time his statement to the public so that it will become public simultaneously with the president's message on conservation. It is thought that both the Pinchot statement and the president's message on conservation will be issued this week.

PRAYER COSTS $475.

Man Kneels as Flames Surround Him, and Money Burns.

Bloomington, Pa., Jan. 11.—Stopping to pray and then searching for his Bible caused Delbert Miller of Epsy, Columbia county, to lose $475 hidden in the attic of his home when his house caught fire today.

Miller, who is of an intensely religious nature, was ill in bed at the time of the fire and after praying made a vain effort to reach the family treasure.

His son then attempted to get it, but was forced to release his hold on the jar which held the money, because of the intense heat. It was finally necessary to carry Miller out of the house, as he knelt in prayer with the flames surrounding him.

In addition to the cash loss the home was destroyed entirely, entailing a loss of $1,500 with $1,000 insurance.

BEAR RAID HURTS MARKET

SALE OF 1,500,000 BALES AT NEW YORK WITH A LOSS OF $4.80.

GREATEST LOSS AT ORLEANS

One of Most Disastrous Days in History at New Orleans—Crashers Market Down 121 Points, or $6.94 a Bale.

New York, Jan. 10.—Under pressure of enormous liquidation involving the sale of approximately 1,500,000 bales the New York Cotton Exchange was hard hit by a bear raid today with losses as high as $4.80 a bale, William P. Brown and Frank B. Hayne, who are credited with being among the leaders in the bull campaign which of late has taken profits estimated at $13,000,000 were on the floor of the exchange, active figures in one of the most exciting sessions in its history.

May cotton, which recently has been as high as 16.19c, dropped to 15.32c, March touched 15.06c, as its lowest point, while July opened at 15.80c, dropped to 15.32c and closed a point higher, May closed at 15.34c and March at 15.11c.

The bears fought bitterly and sold at an enormous scale, several brokers each selling 25,000 bales. The bull element, seeing the drift of things, took profits on a large line of cotton probably with the idea of allowing the shorts to sell themselves into a hole and the slump of 81 to 82 points resulted.

MORMON ACTIN GOVERNOR.

Senator Hart Is Idaho's Executive Pro Tem.

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 11.—Idaho now has a Mormon governor, the first and only one the state has ever had.

The governor is Honorable John W. Hart, bishop of Menan ward of Rigby stake of Zion, Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints.

The constitution provides that in the absence from the state of the governor, the lieutenant governor shall act in his stead, and in the absence of the lieutenant governor, the duties shall devolve upon the president of the senate pro tem.

Governor Brady left Friday afternoon for Washington, to be gone three weeks or more, and, accordingly, crossed the state line out of Idaho some time that night. Lieutenant Governor Sweetser, according to the last report of him, left several days ago for a three months' trip in the East.

It is not believed that Governor Hart will find it necessary to come to Boise to remain, although it is not improbable that official duties will call him here. There are various executive duties which he may be called upon to perform, even though he should not feel disposed to issue a call for a special session of the legislature or to do other things that might set the wheels revolving in an untoward manner.

In case extradition papers should be required, no one would be authorized to perform those duties except Senator Hart.

Negro's House Dynamited.

McAlester, Okla., Jan. 10.—At an early hour this morning, the frame house of Jesse Fisher, a negro living in the second ward, was blown to pieces with dynamite. The family were absent at the time. There is no clue to the perpetrators. The shock was felt all over the ward.

Postmaster Resigns.

Checotah, Okla., Jan. 10.—Art Asbell has resigned as postmaster at Checotah and hereafter will devote his time to agricultural pursuits. J. D. Pauker, R. B. Huffman, editor of the Checotah Times, and Martin Davis, assistant postmaster, are applicants for appointment.

The National Surety company of New York, the company in which the First State bank of Stonewall was insured, yesterday paid the losses incurred by the attempted robbery, and has offered a reward of $200 for the capture of one or all of the robbers taking part in the affray.

The rumor gained circulation in this city last night that one of the bandits had been captured but the local sheriff's office stated this afternoon that so far as that office had been informed, no one has been captured.

FORTUNES LOST AT N. ORLEANS

Bear Raids Brings One of the Most Disastrous Days in History

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—Concentrating all their strength in one last gigantic effort to break the power of the bull clique in cotton, the bears raided the cotton market here today, took all the ginger out of the Government's bureau report and turned what the bull leaders had hoped to be another great victory into a crushing defeat, bringing wreck and ruin to high priced cotton speculators and crushing the market down a maximum of 121 points or $6 per bale.

It was one of the most disastrous days in the history of cotton futures on the New Orleans Cotton Exchange and many fortunes were wiped out. Toward the close of trading the market toned up a bit and closed 80 to 90 points down from the opening, but even a that, the net loss had been almost $5 per bale. It was one of the wildest days in the history of the exchange. That the bulls had strengthened and fortified themselves for a last grand stand today when the bureau report should come in was generally known. Some of the most powerful of the Southern leaders had gone to New York to operate from there, but the day has been their most disastrous defeat.

Immediately upon reading the bureau report, which was extremely bullish, showing 9,642,285 bales of cotton ginned up to Jan. 1, against 12,465,298 for last year, the active deliveries advanced $1 per bale. But it was only momentary, for the crash followed within a few minutes of trading. There was a frightful unloading and the rumors spread on the floor of the exchange that the bull clique was unloading in New York. This started the retreat and the crash came. March contracts sold off from 16.09c to 15c, with a mild retraction of 5 points at the close of the session. May cotton dropped from 16.46c to 15.25c, a drop of 121 points.

Boats Ply Between Shreveport and New Orleans.

Shreveport, La., Jan. 11.—After being en route between eight and nine days the City of Shreveport completed her initial trip between New Orleans and Shreveport when she landed here this evening with a cargo for local delivery.

She encountered no unfavorable conditions except heavy fog, which caused her to anchor several nights on Red river. Her arrival here marks the revival of river freight and passenger transportation between here and New Orleans after several years' inactivity and is expected to be followed with the opening up of trade in the upper Red river at no far distant date. The boat will start back to New Orleans as soon as she is loaded.

Postoffice Burglarized.

Maramec, Okla., Jan. 10.—By forcing entrance through a rear window burglars gained admission to the postoffice here and robbed it of $65 in money and stamps.

A Word of Appreciation

WE THINK THIS AN OPPORTUNE TIME to extend to our Friends and Customers our sincere thanks for their patronage during 1909. The past year has been a successful year for us; the New Year finds us better prepared to serve you. We wish for all, a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

ADA CHARITY ASSOCIATION AID 35 FAMILIES

SINCE THE MINISTERS ORGA-NIZED THE UNITED CHARITIES ASSOCIATION, STREET BEG-GING NOTICEABLY REDUCED.

Wilbur Jones and Henry Lucas Have Actively Directed the Labor of Dispensing Charity to the General Satisfaction of the Public.

President Lucas of the 25,000 club and City Clerk W. B. Jones, treasurer and secretary of the United Charities association of the city of Ada since the beginning of winter and through Christmas assisted 35 destitute families. Groceries, wood and clothing and a line of modest Christmas presents were dispensed to poor and deserving people from the office of the city clerk under the auspices of the United Charities association.

Wilbur Jones, the ideal city clerk has on file at his office a complete statement of all moneys and articles received and the list of all those receiving aid, together with the kind of articles, merchandise received, Messrs. Lucas and Jones cordially invite the public to examine the statement and to consider the effectiveness of the organization and to recommend whatever might be considered for the betterment of the cause of local charity. The charity fund is at present over drawn to the amount of about $7.00, and those citizens who approve the work of the association and have not yet contributed to its support are invited to hand a donation to either Mr. Lucas or Mr. Jones.

It is said that since the United Charities association has been active that the business citizens have noticed a reduced application for assistance by unfortunates. Police Chief Geo. Calver stated that since the charities association has been active that he is hardly ever required to take up a street collection, when before it was nearly an every day's job.

Would it not be a good idea for all the citizens to boost and support the association of charities and then direct all applicants for help to the city hall where detailed inquiry could be made regarding the deservedness of the case.

You read so many offers of superlative bargains in Suits and Overcoats that it would be little wonder if you were not sometimes confused or amused.

All too often paper claims mean nothing. So many clothes dealers simply vie with each other in the extravagant claims they make for the clothes they sell.

And remember there is no patent on prices. It is only when you get down to Quality that there is a Difference.

But in the matter of Quality in the Suits and Overcoats at the prices we are offering them you have an Assurance Policy in the name of the MASTER TAILORS who make them.

Announcements

For County Treasurer.
J. K. SCROGGINS,
J. W. WESTBROOK.

A VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE IN SPEAKER CANNON.

It would be interesting to know whether ever before, under circumstances strictly analogous, the house of representatives refused to permit its speaker to name the members of an investigating committee. But whether the action of the house last Friday is with or without precedent, it is sufficiently distinctive and significant to move any Speaker to resign, if he is endowed with an ordinary quantum of self-respect.

Unhappily our estimate of the Hon.
Joseph C. Cannon is not such as would lead us to expect his resignation.
Brazenry of the kind which can not be described in polite terms is one of several qualities which have conspired to make his personality offensive to the national sense of decency. A black humiliation has been put upon him; or rather, the utmost effort has been made to put a black humiliation upon him. But from the stain upon his reputation he will get no hurt; he will only be sensible, in his vulgar and blasphemous way, to the fact that a majority of the members of the house no longer cower beneath his frown, and a revelation of that kind is always a shock to a tyranny otherwise insensate.

It is not in his humiliation we are gratified, since the circumstances of which that is a logical culmination are discreditable to the Nation; but in the belief—maybe it is only a hope—that having found its courage and discovered its strength, this coalition of democrats and manly republicans will, by persistence, overthrow a pernicious system and destroy its most vicious exponent.

Why is a poker game more alluring than a city council meeting? Ask some one who knows; a Durant alderman, for instance.—Durant News.
Reckon it wasn't a poker game that resulted in no quorum last night, the regular meeting time of the city council. Some of the boys were ill, some out of the city; one had to sleep because he was going to ride on a train tonight and, etc.

Everybody Invited to Attend Big Meeting Tonight.
Representatives of the interdenominational Laymen's Movement are in the city to participate in a meeting at the First Presbyterian church tonight. The laymen of the several churches of the state are planning for a great convention in Oklahoma City next month. The meeting tonight is for the purpose of getting ready for the state convention. Let everybody interested in the work of the church attend the meeting tonight—both men and women.

George F. Brown Dead.
Chicago, Jan. 10.—George Francis Brown, retired treasurer of the Pullman company, died yesterday at the Columet club. His death was not unexpected, he having suffered a long time from heart trouble, forcing his retirement from active business two years ago.
Brown was assistant to the general superintendent of the Pullman company, and became general superintendent in 1880. Five years later he became general manager. He was made treasurer in 1895.

Reward for Shawnees.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—Representative McGuire of Oklahoma today introduced a bill looking toward the reimbursement of loyal Shawnee Indians for their property destroyed during the civil war. A similar claim of the Cherokees and Seminoles was paid by the government and the status of the Shawnee case is the same.
The bill directs the secretary of the interior to investigate and determine the amount of the claims.

Henry D. Shonts Dad.
Chicago, Jan. 10.—Dr. Henry Daniel Shonts, father of Theodore P.
Shonts, president of the Interborough Metropolitan company of New York and of the Chicago & Alton railway, died today, aged 87 years. Dr. Shonts was born in Evansburg, Pa. He was a practicing physician for many years at Erie, Pa., removing with his family to Centerville, Ia., in 1861. Since 1894 he had lived in retirement in Chicago.

Carrier Introduces Bills.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—Representative Carter of Oklahoma, introduced a bill in congress, today, providing for a $200,000 building at Mc-Alester, Oklahoma. He also introduced bills providing for the turning over by the federal government, the United States jail at Ardmore to Carter county and the McAlester jail to Pittsburg county.

Taft Hears Tetravzini.
Washington, Jan. 10.—With Madame Tetravzini singing the leading role in "Lucia de Lammermoor," the operatic season in the national capital opened tonight. President and Mrs. Taft occupied one of the boxes.
Cabinet officials, members of congress and of the diplomatic corps made up a considerable quota of the crowded house.

Explosion Kills Three.
Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 10.—Three men were killed in an explosion today which wrecked the water-gas plant of the Union Gas and Electric company. Portions of the building were carried for blocks and windows were broken over the west side of the city. The building caught fire after the explosion. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Tonight Bloomington is without gas.

Leopold's Daughters Rich.

Brussels, Jan. 10.—The inheritance of Princess Louise, Stephanie and Clementine, the daughters of the late King Leopold, is now estimated at about $4,000,000. It is announced that Princess Louise has paid off her creditors in part.

Nurses Want Politeness.

New York, Jan. 10.—Thirty nurses of the nursery and child's hospital walked out today because the management does not address them as Miss. "They call us Lucy, Jane, or whatever right name might be," said a nurse, "and we protested."

Gaynor Is Democratic.

New York, Jan. 10.—With the curt comment that New York's beautiful Riverside Drive "was made for all and not for a few," Mayor Gaynor tonight issued an order to his new park commissioners to take steps for the immediate resumption of the big public stages on that thoroughfare.

Shoots and Kills Wife.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10.—William Christman shot and killed his wife at their home eight miles west of here, this afternoon. Christman a short time ago was released from an insane asylum as cured.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has laid his loving hand upon our community and school and has removed from our midst our beloved friend and fellow teacher, Miss Evelyn C. Ray, whose life so full of promise and helpfulness, has left its imprint on the whole community in such a manner that time cannot efface the influences, which has resulted from her association with us, and:

Whereas, acknowledging our deep loss, at the same time we realize that in the plucking from our midst so beautiful and so useful a life, "He bath only given this beloved sleep."

Be it resolved that we bow to the omnipotent will of the Almighty in humble submission to his divine mandate, and acknowledge that He, only doeth all things well, and that we look forward with the eye of faith to the time when the mists shall be rolled away from our vision, and we may vindicate the way of the creator in the works of His hand.

Be it further resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family and friends our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of deep sorrow and bereavement.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of this memorial be handed to the Ada papers, a copy spread on the minutes of the books of the Mothers' Club, and a copy be mailed to the sorrowing family.

You have noticed that it is harder to change from writing the date 1909 and writing instead 1910 than any time before in advancing the date one numeral. There is a reason. You have been used to writing 0 in the A. D. date for 10 years, but it has always been the next to the last figure; you also know that there is a figure 9 in 1910, but in spite of yourself, the pencil will insist in writing the figure 0 just one figure too quick. Try it.

MARKET DAILY WIRE TO PRACTICE IN CITY HALL

CARPENTERS BUSY YESTERDAY FIXING UP ROOM.

Wire Screens Placed Over Windows to Escape Being Smashed With Ball.

The auditorium of the city hall has been fitted up for the practicing and playing of basket ball by the girls' East Central Normal team. Carpenters were at work all day yesterday placing wire screens over the windows to prevent the ball sailing through the glass and falling to the ground, thereby necessitating one of the girls going after said ball, besides it wouldn't do to break the glass.

The girls are going to spend a part of every day in diligent practice which will enable them to play all comers. The defeat administered them by the Sulphur high school girls still lingers in their minds and they are going to "do things" to those Sulphur girls when they get them over here for a return game.

Free Delivery for Ada.

There is nothing which could relate with more mathematical certainty the growth of the city of Ada during 1910 than the reference to the Ada postoffice receipts of 1909 over 1910.

The total receipts of the Ada postoffice during 1908 were $9231.71, while the total receipts for 1909 were $10,910.39, an increase of $1,678.68.

It is understood to be the policy of the postoffice department to establish free delivery in those cities, where the receipts are more than $10,000.00 and where there is a reasonably compact population.

The city of Ada is already sufficiently lighted and sidewalked and there would only be required to number the houses and erect street corner signs to be in a position to make a strong case before the department.

Buy Now.

Ada real estate is cheaper today than it will ever be again. This is a fact. You cannot get around it. In a year from now Ada dirt will enhance in value 25 per cent at the very minimum. This prediction is based upon Ada's past. If you want to be tickled because of what you did in January, 1910, buy a few feet of Ada real estate. The Weaver Agency, News Bldg.

Old Couple Weds.

D. H. Pitman, aged seventy years, and Mrs. Emma Thurlow, aged twenty years less, arrived in Ada this morning and this afternoon secured joy-papers from the county clerk.

Business Announcement.

To Whom It May Concern.

I wish to announce to my friends and customers of Ada and surrounding county that I have bought the business property of C. S. Aldrich and have put in a Neat Stock of Family Groceries with Free Delivery and Solicit a Share of Your Patronage.

Our motto will be cash and Prompt Deliver and courteous treatment to all. Will handle feed stuff, poultry and all kinds of produce.

Respectfully, Y. N. FINLY

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE

Alexander's Time.
Tulsa, Ok., Jan. 11.—Mino Denef, a Bulgarian laborer employed here, has in his possession a Grecian coin of the reign of Alexander The Great, bearing the date of 368 B. C. The coin is of silver, with the head of Alexander on one side, and a sitting figure and name "Alexander" written in Latin on the other side.
Denef claims that he plowed up a spot containing eight rare coins while at work upon his father's farm in Bulgaria a few years ago. The others he disposed of but he will not part with this one although he has been offered his own price for the coin by coin collectors and museums.

VILLAGE SLIPS; PEOPLE MOVE.
Slowly Moving Italy Landslide Is Two Miles in Length.

Parma, Italy, Jan. 11.—On the hills between Parma and Piacenza, which are about thirty-six miles apart, an immense landslide is slowly moving. It is two miles in length, half a mile in width and its depth is estimated at seventy-five feet.

On top of the slide is the village of Scopolo, recently occupied by 1,000 people. It is doomed to destruction, and the inhabitants have evacuated the village, transporting their valuables and the furnishings and altars of their church to safer ground.

ICE GORGE DAMAGE $75,000.
Sweeps Away Ferryboats in Wabash River; Crews in Danger.

Mount Carmel, Ill., Jan. 11.—A heavy ice gorge in the Wabash river broke loose unexpectedly today, causing a property loss estimated at $75,000 and sweeping away two steam ferryboats while their crews were asleep.

The men were in great peril for two hours. They were in the crest of the gorge and so crowded by the ice that the ferries' wheels were useless.

Advice We have recently established in the News Building a REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE and LOAN AGENCY and active and constant attention will be given to all business entrusted to our care. We propose to line up our agency along with the growth and advancement of the city, and we want to make your business acquaintance.

Real Estate We make a specialty of PUSHING property listed with our agency. We do not make a note of it on a memorandum, and forget it, but use printers ink to promote its early and sure sale. It pays to advertise. We preach that sort of doctrine and practice it as well. Property listed with us will be advertised, and if there is anything doing at all in the real estate transfers we are busy too. We have at the present date some pretty bargains in Ada stuff which you may see advertised in another column of this issue of the News. If you want to sell list with us today.

Insurance The WEAVER FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY was the first established in Ada, and during these nearly 10 years every claim has been promptly adjusted, to the entire satisfaction of the policy holder. This is not a bad record. This is true because only the best and strongest companies have been represented. Among these are: The Royal, New York Underwriters, the Niagara, and the Phenix. These are as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar. PROMPTNESS is the watch-word. You can make no mistake by selecting any of these to carry your risk.

Loans We are at present arranging to represent leading loan companies, and expect to be prepared at an early date to take care of applications for loans on city or farm property.

Police Working on Theory She and Walter Are in Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Jan. 9.—Although eleven days have elapsed since Roberto DeJaron, the 17-year-old heirless, and Frederick Cohen, the middle-aged waiter, disappeared from the Bellevue-Straford hotel, their whereabouts are still a complete mystery.
In spite of the many reports spread broadcast last week that the girl had been found, her relatives still deny that they have yet discovered any clue by which they can locate her.
The police force having run to the ground all possible out-of-town clues are now working on the theory that the waiter and the girl are concealed in this city.

Hospital Drops Into Mine.
Vienna, Jan. 11.—An extraordinary accident occurred yesterday at Rabb, in Carinthia. The sudden subsidence of the site of a disused mine completely engulfed a small hospital building. Not a vestige of the hospital remains, and only a huge cavity appeared in the ground. Seven inmates of the hospital, including Surgeon Weeseley and his family, perished.

CURES REMOVE DOUBT ABOUT ECZEMA CURE
Read What Your Druggist Says About Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Druggist G. M. Ramsey submits the following to the readers of the Evening News:

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema, a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold.

We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

French Navy to Neutralize Manchurian Railways.
Paris, Jan. 11.—Although France favors the preservation of the open door policy and Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria, it considers that the issues raised by the American proposition to neutralize the Manchurian railroads primarily concern Russia and Japan. The French reply to the American memorandum, therefore, is likely to be determined by the eventual attitude of Russia. France's ally.

The French press regards the question as complicated. The Figaro thinks that the United States is trying to retrieve its mistake in 1904-05, when it backed Japan to get Russia out of Manchuria, only to find that Japan had supplanted her there without benefit to the open door.

"Even if Russia accepts," says the paper, "Japan is not likely to agree England is bound by a Japanese alliance and a similar reserve is imposed upon us, for like and other reasons."

Peking Is Possessible.
Peking, Jan. 11.—The highest government officials are pessimistic with regard to British support of the proposals of the American government relative to the Manchurian railways, and believe that more active German support would bring about a realization of the scheme.

Harbin, Jan. 11.—The Chinese, British and American residents have held demonstrations in approval of the American memorandum. The British subjects here on the ground say that the plan furnished the only means to safeguard equal opportunities in trade and commerce.

TAIL HOLD SAVES TRAINER.
Assistant Keeps Leopard From Tearing Woman to Pieces.

New York, Jan. 11.—The sharp teeth and claws of Clayton, a trained leopard, nearly cost the life of Mrs. Pauline Russell, his trainer, today, but the length and strength of his tail saved her.

Clayton was ugly and would not perform. Mrs. Russell prodded him with an iron bar and called to her assistant for aid. In the instant of turning her head to call the leopard leaped. He bore his mistress to the ground and a good over her, growling and lashing his tail.

It was then the quick-witted assistant, reaching into the cage grabbed Clayton's tail, took a double hitch around the bars of the cage with it, and rescued Mrs. Russell in safety. The woman was badly torn, and at the hospital it was said tonight her recovery is problematical. The attack occurred in private training quarters.

Decatur, Ala., January 11.—Jim Gray and Mrs. Linda Madley were killed and Tom Reelford and two other men whose names could not be learned, were perhaps fatally wounded by Will Blocker at Town Creek, a small town twenty miles west of Decatur.

Blocker was in love with the Madley woman and she had just refused to marry him, when he threatened to kill her. Jim Gray and the other men, who were in an adjoining room heard the threat and went to the woman's rescue. This enraged Blocker more, and picking up a pump shotgun, he swore he would kill "the whole damned outfit," and before the gun could be taken away from him he had emptied its contents into the bodies of the woman and the four men.

Blocker then attempted to cut his throat, thinking he had killed all five of the party, but neighbors, hearing the shots, rushed into the house and overpowered Blocker and bound his hands and feet. He taved like mad and threatened to kill every one who came near.

Officers took Blocker to Moulton, the county seat of Lawrence county, where he is confined in a cell.

POUND LOAF IN DALLAS.
Bakers in the Texas City Now Make Them Sixteen Ounces.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 11.—Acting in compliance with the new ordinance the bakeries of Dallas began furnishing bread weighing sixteen ounces to the loaf. Heretofore groceries have supplied the people with most of the bread, fourteen ounces to the loaf for 5 cents, on arrangements with their bakers for a lesser wholesale price.

Now nearly all the grocers decline to furnish bread to their customers and they have to deal directly with the bakers as the latter insist on charging everybody, including grocers 5 cents a loaf.

Much inconvenience has been caused and the people are showing decided dissatisfaction over the action of the city authorities in passing the sixteen-ounce ordinance.

HEBREW TERRORIST ARRESTED.
Attempts to Assassinate Russian Governor General.

Vilna Lithuania Russia, Dec. 27.—A few days ago a young Hebrew emptied his revolver at a carriage in which Gen. Alexieff and Pango of the engineer service were returning from a service at the cathedral, wounding Gen. Pango slightly in the arm. The terrorist, who was arrested, has now confessed that he was sent to assassinate Gen. Hoerchelmann, late governor general of Moscow and now commanding the troops in the Vilna military district and misook Gen. Pango, who was wearing his full dress uniform, with decorations, for his intended victim.

PLAN TO PROTECT FRUIT TREES.
Roswell Fruit Growers' Association Members Agree to Install Smudge.

Roswell N. M., Jan. 10.—The annual meeting of the Roswell Fruit Growers Association held here today developed the fact that 75 per cent of the orchardists of this section will install smudge pots this winter and use them for the protection of fruit during the late winter and spring months. The discussion of smudging took so much time that the annual election of officers was postponed until Saturday.

Representative Sulzer's Resolution Declares Madrid Is No Better.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Favoring the recognition by the United States of Gen. Juan J. Estrada as President of the legitimate Government of Nicaragua Representative Sulzer of New York introduced a joint resolution in the House today. In discussing his resolution Mr. Sulzer said that Madrid is not satisfactory, is the mere factotum of Zelaya, and that while Estrada holds the Presidency the revolution will continue.

COUGHS UP NEEDLE; IS CURED.
Boy Was About to Be Operated Upon for Appendicitis.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Surgeons at Kittanning, Pa., had placed Norman Barnett, the little son of George Barnett, on the operating table today to cut out his appendix, but just as the knife was ready, the lad was seized with a fit of coughing, which cured him. He emitted a needle which is believed to have caused his illness. He is rapidly recovering.

THE EVENING NEWS

DEVOTED TO MAKING ADA A LARGER AND MORE PROGRESSIVE CITY

VOLUME 6

ADA, OKLAHOMA, MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 10, 1910

NUMBER 242

CLIMAX CAUSED BY PINCHOT

Both Houses Contain Friends of Pinchot—Senate is Friendly to Cannon—Ballinger Says He Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The present week will probably decide whether there will be a prolonged conflict involving the President of the United States within the ranks of the republican party in congress. Conditions have been tending in that direction for some time, but instead of adding to the impulse the dismissal of Mr. Pinchot apparently has had the effect of causing a halt. It has prompted senators and members to consider the possibilities of a continuation of the controversy and present indications are of a more specific tendency than were those of a week ago.

Situation Is Critical.

There is no denying that in some respects the situation is critical. Mr. Pinchot has a large number of personal friends and admirers in both houses who would be inclined to take up his cause if favorable opportunity presents and if they could do so without endangering the peace of the party and their own political welfare. On the other hand, many are saying that the personal fortunes of Messrs. Ballinger and Pinchot are of little importance compared to the great question of the preservation of party harmony, and those who take this view are urging the necessity of preventing any sharp conflict in congress on the lines of difference between the Secretary of the Interior and the former chief of the forest service.

Whether or not the conservative counsel of this element shall prevail will depend upon the course of events in congress during the next few days. There is no doubt that the investigation of the Interior Department and forest service will proceed along the lines indicated by the Jones-Humphrey resolution, but it would be competent for the committee to either broaden or narrow the inquiry. If the advice of many leaders is followed, however, this inquiry will be restricted as much as possible, especially now that, as an official factor, Mr. Pinchot is eliminated from the dispute.

tee to either broaden or narrow the inquiry. If the advice of many leaders is followed, however, this inquiry will be restricted as much as possible, especially now that, as an official factor, Mr. Pinchot is eliminated from the dispute.

Senate for Cannon.

The question will receive its next attention on the floor of the Senate. The present situation is this: The house has adopted the resolution of the appointment of the committee by the house itself rather than by the speaker as was originally provided. Without awaiting the official notification as to the action of the house the senate committee on public lands has decided to report the resolution in such form as to authorize the selection of the house members by the speaker. Unquestionably this action was taken with the intention of complementing the speaker, and it will be reported to the senate.

Speaker Cannon, it is said, feels that it would be impolitic for him to take advantage of this condition and override the expressed order of a majority of the house and it is probable therefore that the senate will take such action as will steer clear of a controversy with the house. It is now said that the speaker himself would prefer that the house should select the committee. The senate committee on public lands will report its resolution tomorrow and it is probable discussion will begin not later than Tuesday.

The senate calendar is still lean and it is probable that the Ballinger-Pinchot resolution will not be taken up until the first of the week. The house will proceed with the consideration of the army appropriation bill. By Tuesday night the fortification appropriation bill will have been reported and it will be taken up.

Ballinger Has No Fears.

Washington, Jan. 9.—I have nothing to fear from a thorough determination of facts, said Secretary Ballinger yesterday. I may have committed errors of judgment in one way or another, as any man might while in the public service, but I am firm in my knowledge that no improper motive has ever influenced me in any action I have taken.

The secretary remarked that he not only wanted to have his own conduct investigated, but desired also to have the same course followed in relation to the other fellow.

He declined to make any comment regarding the action of the president in dismissing from the public service Gifford Pinchot. The secretary said he had endeavored to have the joint resolution providing for a congressional investigation worded so that the investigation would be as thorough as possible.

Bitterest Criticism Is Over Federal Incorporation Scheme—President's Argument Is Base of Opposition.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The attitude which the progressive Senators and representatives take toward President Taft's legislative program as outlined in his last message is this: That the proposed voluntary incorporation act would afford a refuge for trusts which may be ordered dissolved because of violations of anti-trust law.

That taking away from the Interstate Commerce commission the right to prosecute in the courts through special counsel defense of its orders and compelling the commission to turn all such cases over to the department of justice would curtail the usefulness of the commission to the shipper seeking relief.

That the provision permitting pooling without regulation by the commission by merely filing the pooling agreement with the commission would seriously menace the whole rate control scheme.

They are opposed to these provisions as they stand and will seek to remedy what they consider to be the defects. As for the rest of the program, they regard it as long steps forward, some of which are handicapped, however, by lack of machinery to put them into full execution. One particular defective omission, in the opinion of the progressives, is in connection with the proposal to let the commission hold up advances in rates. It is pointed out that if the commission is to have but sixty days in which to investigate and hold a public hearing on the subject, it will be physically possible to block but a few advances in rates in the sixty days at its disposal. This is better understood when it is considered that the roads file with the commission more than 3,000 changes in rates and classifications each month.

As to the feasibility of the proposed commerce court, the progressives themselves are divided. Only a few of them are inclined to criticize this proposal seriously. In the matter of giving the commission authority to initiate investigations and orders of limiting stock and bond issues, of giving shippers the right to route shipments, and of prohibiting one line from holding the stocks and bonds of competing lines, they give the president credit for having made important forward steps with which they are heartily in accord. In the case of limiting the issuances of stocks and bonds, they would go a step further than the president goes, by providing funds and machinery for the valuation of all railroads.

Ottawa, Kan., Jan. 10.—Rev. W. M. Stucky, the ex-minister of Williamsburg, who has been on trial charged with abducting Lorena Sutherland, his 17-year-old parishioner, was found guilty by the jury. The case will probably be appealed.

Stucky was found guilty on both charges, those of abduction of the girl, for immoral purposes and for abducting her for white slave purposes. The penalty is from one to five years each count.

When the verdict was read Stucky appeared to be very nervous.

His wife, who stood by him through out the ordeal, sobbed audibly and their two children were also in tears. He was taken back to jail.

Washington, Jan. 9.—That some determination will be reached concerning several appointive offices in Oklahoma is believed certain at a conference with President Taft and members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation Monday. Matters pertaining to the new state pending settlement will be gone over thoroughly, it is believed, and some definite action decided on. The two offices of United States attorney for the western district and the Lawton land office are at stake. For the former it is believed Frank Gillette of Ell Reno and Robert A. Lowry of Stillwater are the two between whom a decision must be made. For the land office George Crosby and A. W. Maxwell are the two candidates in the field. Maxwell is the present incumbent and he wants to be re-appointed.

Indications here are that Congressman Morgan, Cash Cade, and Dennis Flynn are supporting Judge Gillette for the appointment of district attorney, while Congressman McGuire favors Lowry. The same lineup is apparent in the matter of the land office, with the addition of Congressman Creager favoring Maxwell.

PENSIONS FOR INDEPENDENTS.

Cherry, Ill., Jan. 9.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the American Red Cross, and Duncan McDonald, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, issued a statement today in answer to criticisms of the relief work and defining the necessity for a permanent relief plan. The total disbursements to the people of Cherry since the tragedy are shown to be $101,800. The dependents are now given a weekly average cash grant of $5.75, the schedule running up or down according to the number of children.

The report estimates that there is approximately $145,000 available for relief work. It is the proposal of the Red Cross to place a sum of $400,000, which will be required, it is estimated, in the hands of trustees for the care of the sufferers until they again become able to sustain themselves. This form of pension will enable children to be educated and widows to live comfortably and in the meantime the relief operations can be brought to an end.

SAYS PULPIT IS OBSOLETE.

Dr. Felix Adler Points to Decreasing Church Attendance as One Proof.

New York, Jan. 9.—"Is the pulpit obsolete?" asked Dr. Felix Adler, the lecturer and author, tonight, and answered, "Yes," on his own question. "Falling church attendance," continued the speaker, "testifies to the failure of the pulpit. Formerly views on important subjects were headed by the clergy. Now we read the views of bankers.

"The best men are no longer going into the pulpit. The age is practical and men want visible results. In turn, the influx of inferior men diminishes regard for the pulpit. "Oratory as an art is dying out. Now they will not stand more than twenty-five minutes preaching."

Dr. Adler believes that in more ethics, less theology and fewer diffused discourses on general subjects lies the cure of the clergy plight.

Judge Hook Considers.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—After hearing the concluding arguments in the application of three Oklahoma railroads for an injunction to restrain the state from enforcing a two-cent fare law and maximum freight rate, Judge William C. Hook, of the federal court, today took the case under advisement and allowed twenty days for the filing of briefs.

POLITICAL TALK FLOWS FREELY IN WASHINGTON.

Seasoned Politicians Say Will Be Dead Easy to Re-Nominate Taft in 1912.

Washington, Jan. 9.—It is easy for one to conjure up from the political events of the last week a situation in the republican party in 1912 similar to that famous period when Gen. Grant returned from abroad in 1880 and plunged the party into the greatest fight in its history. On the other hand, it is easy to draw a picture from these same events similar to that of 1900, when William McKinley received every vote in the national convention at Philadelphia, or in 1904, when Theodore Roosevelt was the unanimous choice of the convention which met in Chicago.

Is it to be Taft after a fight in which another world tour will play a part similar to that of 1900? In other words, are Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt coming to fight, or is Mr. Roosevelt coming "back from Elba" to seek to overthrow the man who was his candidate in 1908, or will it be Mr. Taft as the candidate in 1912 with a practically solid convention at his back?

Mr. Taft is a candidate for renomination in 1912. He has made no announcement, but that is not necessary. He is before the people of this country as a candidate now, and the seasoned politicians of the republican party do not doubt that he will be nominated with or without opposition. If there is opposition it will be crushed, if there is no opposition it will be because he has conageously met party emergencies just as he met the recent one when he took Mr. Pinchot out of office, regardless of whether it would please Mr. Roosevelt, the muck rake magazines and the reform element.

FOOLS TRAIN WRECKERS.

Georgia Firemen Tied to Rails by Negroes.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 9.—Because Daniel J. Mathews, a fireman of the Central of Georgia railroad, refused to give four armed negroes a switch key he was tied face downward on the main line of the Central road at an early hour this morning and now lies in a critical condition at a local hospital, being knocked from his perilous position a few minutes after he was attacked by an east-bound passenger train. The negroes were plotting to wreck a passenger train.

Announcements

For County Treasurer.

J. W. WESTBROOK.

The World of Labor.

will settle the wage controversy between the Illinois Central and the telegraphers in its employ. This is the first of the many wage controversies that will be considered by
the railroad officials, and is said to
mean that in all others arbitration
will be used to settle the differences.
The Illinois Central case will be the precedent. The questions to be arbitrated are the number of hours in a
day's work, wages to be paid, and
rates for overtime and Sunday work.
The carter employed by the Great Central Railway Company have gained
one point in the dispute which
chester, Sheffield, Leeds, Nottingham
and other large centers in England
served by that railway. The men asked that their hours and rates of pay
should be made to correspond with those given to London and Northwestern men, and they complained that requests to interview
the directors had always been refused.
The cause for complaint on the latter ground has been removed by the arrangement of a meeting.

A new labor agreement, which will have an important effect on the future of the diamond trade has just been formed at Amsterdam, Holland,
the chief diamond cutting center of the world. Under the new agreement
introduce 2,200 apprentices into the
factories in the next five years. The consent of the union to the introduction of the large number of new apprentices was given only after the Amsterdam manufacturers had agreed to follow the New York City manufacturers in recognizing an eight-
hour day.

Life is a Funny Thing.

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against
his will. During his stay on earth
his times is spent in one continuous
round of contraries and misunder-
standings by the balance of our species. In his infancy he is an angel;
in his boyhood he is a devil, in his
manhood he is everything from a lizard up; in his studies he is an utter fool; if he raises a family he
is a chump; if he raises a small
check he is a thief, and then the law
raises the devil with him; if he is a poor man he is a poor manager and
has no sense; if he is a rich man
he is dishonest, but considered smart;
if he is in politics he is a grafter and a crook; if he is out of politics he can't place him, as he is an undesirable citizen; if he goes to church
he is a hypocrite; if he stays away
from church he is a sinner and damned; if he donates to foreign missions he does it for show; if he does
not he is stingy and a tight wad.
When he first comes into the world
everybody wants to kiss him—before
he goes out everybody wants to kick
him. If he dies young there was a great future before him; if he lives to a ripe old age he is skimpily in the way and living to save, funeral expenses. Life is a funny road, but we all like to travel, it just the same.—Ex.

New York, Jan. 9.—Mayor Gaynor
maintained his reputation for political whimsicalities tonight by appoint-
to succeed Dr. Thomas A. Darlington as health commissioner. The appointee is Ernest J. Lederle, who resides a position as consulting sanitary engineer with the state and
him $15,000 a year. His position as health commissioner carries a salary
of half that amount. Mr. Lederle is an expert chemist, but he is not a doctor of medicine.

1060 Operators in Oklahoma and 1012
Receive Less Than Seven Dollars a Week.

That the telephone operators of the state as a whole are greatly under-
paid, and at an unequal ratio with
other lines of work when the degree of skill is compared, is the assertion of Charles L. Daugherty, commissioner of labor. In speaking of the matter Saturday, Mr. Daugherty
referred to his annual report for
last year in which an extensive report on the condition of telephone
operators is made, and said:

"A thorough investigation of the condition of the operators employed
by the telephone companies of the
last year. It was found that while the sanitary conditions were good,
the wages paid the help were absolutely inadequate when it was considered that many of the girls had
no home, and in order to make a bare living, were compelled to live
in small, poorly ventilated rooms,
enjoying no advantages which would
permit them to better themselves."

"In many instances, in order to exist an existence they were compelled to stint themselves in food and clothing, and after their hard day's work,
many were forced to do their own cooking, washing and mental labor."

"It is therefore easily seen that
instead of having opportunities to better their mental, moral, and physical growth—opportunities that should
particularly belong to girls who must earn their own living—the contrary is more likely."

"There are employed in Oklahoma
1,060 operators, and of this number
1,012 of them receive less than $7.00
a week, although they are compelled
to work seven days a week at an average of nine hours a day. A most
objectionable feature of their work
is that many of them are compelled
to leave duty between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock at night."

"In my investigation of the state, I found that practically every class of
labor in it had an opportunity to save a certain portion of their wages.
This, however, would not apply to
the telephone operators because of
the small salaries which they receive, placing their cost of living at
a point which renders it practically
impossible to save from their wages

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—Miss Louise Livaudais, member of a prominent French family here, and
three associates charged with conspiracy and participating in the
smuggling of Chinese are today making a desperate attempt through
counsel to resist being taken to Brownsville where they are under indictment.

The girl admits making a midnight
trip to Lake Ponchartrain with Nic Strotakes, alleged ring leader of the conspirators and having seen Chinese
landed from a schooner which
brought them from Matamoros, Mex.,
via Galveston. A government spy who worked with the smugglers, is the chief witness. The authorities say they expect to take the accused to Brownsville for trial.

Reported That J. P. Morgan Is Promoting $200,000,000 Scheme.

Christiana, Jan. 10.—It is reported that J. P. Morgan of New York and the Cutscherbank of Berlin are planning a world-wide trust in the nitrate
industry with a capital of $200,000, 000. It is understood that the syndicate intends to purchase all the saltpeter mines in Chile as well as the nitrate works in Norway, where $20-000,000 is invested. The scheme, it is said, has not passed the stage of preliminary discussion and skepti-
here.

The leading Norwegian nitrate men
are now in Berlin, where the international administrative board is holding its annual meeting.

Knife Blade in His Nose 22 Years.

the blade entered his nose, where

ENGINEER STARTS IN SCATTER-ING MONEY.

Car Coupler and Is Now Getting Rid of It.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The wild extrava-
gances of Henry C. Ostermann, Chicago's champion champagne oper, and "big tip" giver, are still the
talk of the waiters and bartenders
in the restaurants and buffets he has
is one of the few customers they
have known who have tossed $10
bills about as most tipsters do dimes
and quarters. And now it is understood that Ostermann will turn the golden stream on Paris.

Ostermann's announcement, made
the week before Christmas, that he
show the boulevards what real spending is, has brought sorrow to many gay lighted cafes. At that time he admitted that he had understood that
there were some pretty fast sappers
in Paris, but he modestly said that he felt good for a month at least
there and that he was sure that almost all Paris would know he was in town after a few hours.

"I don't speak French," he said,
"but let me get a few friends and
there will be something doing from Montmartre to the Place Vendome."

He was making this declaration his waiter in Dejonghe's was bringing in silver tubs filled with ice in which were resting silver tipped bottles of French wines. And this same waiter was handed a tenner for his trouble. Then more wine followed, and more, and more, and every time the waiter's personal fee
was forthcoming. Finally Ostermann
decided that the orchestra was too
far away and a $100 bill made the
members all agree they were really
a fine, liberal man." So the entire orchestra took their instruments and
played for the special benefit of the Ostermann party until the 1 o'clock
ordinance came into effect and the place had to be closed. Then Oster-
mann lined up every waiter in the place and each received a bill. Some of them hadn't been able to do a single thing for the giver during his stay in the restaurant, but they all
took the tips without hesitation.

Ostermann on the last day of November appeared in the Burns Hotel
in Detroit, and before he left every waiter, bartender, bellboy, cham-
bermaid and scrub woman in the
place had all the money they wanted
for their Christmas shopping. He
would buy a bottle of wine, lay down
a twenty dollar bill and leave the change. He was so sorry for an old woman who was washing the floor
in the corridor that he gave her a twenty and she almost fainted. She prays for him every night since, so
she says, so perhaps it was not extravagance. He met a minister, he had known in former years and made him a present of $50 for his church.
The news of the doing spread all
over Detroit and a guard of detectives attached themselves to his train
to see that no one got his whole
roll at one time.

A few months ago Walla Walla, Wash., was dazzled by the gold and
yellowbacked bills he threw into the air at various restaurants and saloons. On his return to Chicago Ostermann said that the story had been
swelled up, but in the light of more
recent spendings it is easily believed that all the truth perhaps was
not told of his gay life in Walla Walla.

Ostermann formerly was an engineer. With an inventive mind he modeled a car coupler which made good as soon as it was offered. He formed a company which bears his
name, located at Pullman, a suburb
of Chicago, where large returns are
being received for its manufacture.
The directors of this company last week told Ostermann he would have to buy or sell. The notoriety their president had brought them by his lavish spendings was too much. They were afraid of the credit of the company. Ostermann sold. He received

PRESIDENT DETERMINED TO DUST "UNDESIRABLES"

TAFT'S FRIENDS WARN HIM OF INSURGENTS.

Insurgents and Progressives Will Oppose Second Term in White House.

By Tav
Special to News.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Warned by
his friends that the real insurgents
of the house and the real progressives of the Senate will oppose his
White House, President Taft has determined to rid the republican party of all "undesirables" without further ado and thus avoid interference later on.

The action of the president in reaching a final decision as to progressives and insurgents is thought to
be directly due to information supplied by Senator Aldrich, Speaker
Cannon and other reactionary leaders,
with whom the president is co-operating and in whom he has the greatest confidence. The import of their advice was to the effect that the
progressives and insurgents are involved in what practically amounts
to a conspiracy to interfere with Mr.
Taft's ambition to succeed himself
as president, this being the fourth
plot against the chief executive that
has been uncovered by the reactionary stunts since March 4 last.

After having given the matter
much careful consideration, the pre-
the views of his friends are well
founded, and he has decided to act
without further waste of time.

"All these insurgents who remained on the warpath after the passage
of the tariff bill must be driven out
of public life," is the command that has been issued from standpat headquarters. "They are preaching demonstrations, they are attacking the tariff and are therefore democrats. Annihilate them to the last man."

The writer can give no clearer
idea of the nature of the warfare
that is now waging than by reviewing, briefly, the rules that are being followed by the standpatters in their treatment of the outlaws:

1. Recommendations of insurgents
as to appointments to federal positions within their districts are receiving no consideration.

2. Officeholders appointed upon the recommendation of insurgents
are to be gradually supplanted by
men satisfactory to the "standpat"
element of Congressional districts.

3. Every possible endeavor is being made to secure the defeat of insurgent candidates in the republican primaries.

4. In instances of insurgent candidates winning the congressional nominations from standpatters, the latter are to bolt and allow democrats to win.

5. Insurgents are to be prevented from securing the appropriation
of public money for the construction of public buildings or bridges
within their districts.

6. There are to be decreased appropriations for all government institutions, such as agricultural experiment stations, arsenals, navy
yards, forts, etc., located in district
represented in congress by insurgents. Economy will be cited as reason decreases.

7. Appropriations for waterway improvements in progressive territory are to be limited, and if possible, prevented.

8. Bills providing for progressive legislation, when introduced by insurgents, will be referred to committees backed by Speaker Cannon,
where the measures will die.

9. Insurgents desiring the floor for the purpose of pointing out the iniquities of the standpat organization will not be recognized by the speaker of the House if recognition
can possibly be avoided.

10. Insurgents in the House have been appointed to unimportant committees.

By working systematically along the lines indicated, the standpatters
hope to humiliate the progressives
in Congress, weaken them in the eyes of their constituents at home,
and to finally retire them to private
life.

The insurgents and progressives
are practically at the mercy of their foes now. While in Washington they are in the enemy's country. They are doing little more than to be close to their guns, all communication between them and the white house having been severed. In the war of politics, the public's money is the ammunition which counts, and of this the standpatters are in complete possession.

The insurgents have not given up
hope, however. They believe that whatever reverses they sustain now,
they will more than make up for

place in the congressional elections
this fall, particularly in the west,
which the insurgents regard as their
"home" territory.

The pastors and the laymen of the several churches of Ada are requested to assemble at the First Presbyterian church, Tuesday at 7 15 p. m., for a conference with representatives of the Laymen's Movement from Oklahoma City concerning the Great Laymen's Conference to be held in Oklahoma City Feb. 15-17. This meeting is for the purpose of beginning preparation for this conference. The general committee of the organized Laymen's Movement for the United States arranged sometime ago for a series of conferences to be held in every part of the nation and or a great Laymen's Congress to be held in Chicago in May. Noted leaders of the several denominations of the nation are to have places on the program of these conferences. The meeting in Oklahoma City in February for which plans are now being made by the several churches of the city and of the state, should be one of the greatest of the series and should bring a great forward movement and as signal inspiration to all the churches of the great, new state. It is expected that the citizens of Ada will not be lacking in interest in this movement since they have not yet been found lag-gards when an important interest made its appeal to them. Let every man interested in the welfare of the church and of christianity be present at the meeting Tuesday evening Mr. H. B. Johnson and Rev. J. E. Disch of Oklahoma City will be present to speak and counsel with us.

A. L. BULLOCK OF ROFF IS THE JUDGE TODAY.

The case of Gertrude Case vs. Duke Stone is being tried this afternoon. This case was tried during the last term of court and the county judge being disqualified of his own motion, the attorneys were asked to select another judge to try the case. Judge A. L. Bullock of Roff, was agreed to by the attorneys.

The county judge has been busy today with probate matters.

EXHIBITION BEGINS TODAY.

Beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon the pictures which are intended for the walls of the public and normal schools will be shown at the Christian church as was stated in these columns a few days ago. An admission of 10 cents and 15 cents will be charged to see this collection of pictures which represents two hundred subjects, and the proceeds derived from the exhibition will be used to purchase the pictures for the walls of the local schools.

They may be seen from 3 to 5 today and from 7 to 10 tonight.

Will Occupy Old Stand Ada Furniture & Coffin Co., and Will Enlarge His Business.

Mr. L. T. Walters is moving his undertaking establishment to the building being vacated by the Ada Furniture and Coffin company on south side central Main street. This building is one of the more commodious ones on Main street and will enable Mr. Walters to take advantage of the artistic taste and orderly mind with which he is gifted to establish up-to-date and appropriate undertaking parlors in every particular. In addition to his undertaking business, which he has so well established in this county Mr. Walters will also deal largely in musical instruments.

BIRDWELL RECOVERING.

Complete Recovery Is Expected in Few Days.

Zelaya to Be Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Former President Zelaya of Nicaragua, if his extradition from Mexico is asked for, will be treated as any other foreign citizen in the later republic, existing treaties between Mexico and Nicaragua and the Mexican laws on the subject being taken into careful consideration. This was the declaration of Senor De la Barra, ambassador from Mexico to the United States, who arrived here today, on his return from his country.

Absolutely no change in the friendly feeling between Mexico and United States has taken place, according to Senor De la Barra. The two countries are as one, he asserted, in their desire to bring about a resumption of peaceful conditions in Nicaragua. The ambassador tomorrow will pay his respects to Secretary Knox and possibly arrange a date for a conference on the future joint action of Mexico and the United States as regards Nicaragua.

No Suspects Captured.

Up to this afternoon no suspects of the First State bank of Sonewall attempted robbery have been caught. Several officers are hunting for them.

Wants to Know Who Murdered Groce and Cannon—President Grieved at Dias's Death.

Managua, Nic., Jan. 9.—President Madriz is greatly cast down by the death of General Fornos Diaz. General Diaz was a warm friend of Madriz, and it would have been possible for the president and the representative of the provisional government to go over the whole situation with some expectation of an amicable agreement.

Dr. Madriz is hopeful of the early appointment of a delegate to take the place of General Diaz, but he fears that the new peace envoy will represent only the liberal element of the revolutionists. Word has come to him that the conservatives, led by General Chamorro mean to continue fighting and he has been warned that Chamorro and his army are advancing through the department of Chontales toward Managua. The government, however is ready to oppose the advance at La Mango.

According to the advices received here a split has occurred in the ranks of the revolutionists, and it is believed that one faction will reject all overtures of peace. President Madriz has ordered court proceedings to be instituted for the purpose of punishing whoever was responsible for the execution of the Americans Groce and Cannon. As ex-President Zelaya does not appear officially in the records of the court martial, the responsibility cannot be fixed on him. But possibly some official will be found guilty, probably Salomon Salva, the prosecuting attorney who officiated at the trial. He may, however produce in securing a torney who officiated at the congress might order the trial of Zelaya.

Ballinger, Tex. Jan. 8.—F. B. Kimbler, living in the northern part of this county, killed his wife, six year old son and his three-year-old daughter, seriously wounded his niece, aged 20, and ended his own life by cutting his throat today.

Kimbler had been in bad health but got up at the usual time and was assisting his wife in making fires. He stepped out and secured a hatchet ostensibly to cut kindling. Returning to the house he said:

"Wife, we have all got to go," and killed her. Going over to the bed, where the children were still asleep, he attacked them also. Then he entered his niece's room and struck her. By this time a nephew of Kimbler was aroused and he and the wounded young woman made their escape.

Returning to the room where his wife lay unconscious on the floor, Kimbler used a pocket knife to end his own life. Mrs. Kimbler and the baby lived for five or six hours, but the six-year-old boy was instantly killed. The young woman's recovery is doubtful. Kimbler was a successful farmer.

Dallas Agricultural Expert Before House Committee.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The cotton crop for the year 1909 is going to be the smallest since 1899, according to a statement of W. D. Hunter of Dallas, Tex., expert of the Department of Agriculture.

"It is due," said he in addressing the House committee on agriculture today, "to the weevil in Louisiana and in portions of Arkansas and Mississippi and to the extreme dry weather in Texas." The boll weevil, he declared, would undoubtedly cause a redistribution of production of cotton, first in large areas. What were large centers of production formerly, he said, were going to show a reduction, and more than that, there would be a redistribution of the smallest plantations.

"In the large areas," he continued, "the production is going to fall off. According to all we know about fighting the boll weevil cotton can not be planted profitably in black lands with poor drainage. But the soil and other conditions in certain parts of almost every plantation in the South will permit the planter to continue to raise cotton profitably despite the boll weevil. Recent experiments with a new kind of poison—powdered arsenate of lead—seem to indicate that even where the weevil is most numerous a certain degree of control may be obtained.

STANWOOD, COTTON MAN, DEAD.

Well-Known Buyer at Boston—Formerly Operated at New Orleans.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 10.—Francis Coolidge Stanwood, a well known cotton buyer of this city, died early this morning at his home here. He had been ill since Thursday. Mr. Stanwood was born Sept. 29, 1851, and was the son of Lemuel Stanwood and Carolina Louisa Coolidge. He attended the Boston Latin school and shortly after graduating went South as cotton buyer for Ellerton L. Dorr & Co. of State street. Later he formed a partnership with his brother, Lemuel Stanwood. From 1873 to 1886 Mr. Stanwood made his home in New Orleans and Galveston, returning to Boston in 1886, when his brother's death necessitated his taking charge of the Boston business.

IS JUST TO PLEASE THE EYE.

Why Rejoice Use of Bleached Flour Is Decreasing.

Washington, Jan. 9.—"It is just to please the eye. No good can come from making flour white," declared Chemist Wiley of the department of agriculture. "You can not find any great amount of bleached flour going into interstate commerce at all now. I can tell the change now by the bread. Every time I cut a loaf of the bread I rejoice because instead of its having the whiteness of a corpse, it has that beautiful delicate amber tint that all bread ought to have. The electricity was the agent which produced the bleaching material."

"Several cases are now pending against millers, and I do not betray any confidence of the millers when I say that the fight on this case is made chiefly by the men who are selling the machinery. The millers themselves would not fight it for a moment if left to them; but the men who are making this bleaching machinery have been hurt. The makers of the United States were always opposed to bleached flour. They knew the flour was injured by the process."

Nails Feet and Left Hand to Her Bed.

May Die.

Rome, Jan. 10.—A servant girl in Turin became possessed lately of a religious mania. The woman who employed her found her crucified.

The girl, after placing thorns in her hair and inflicting a severe wound on her chest, nailed her feet and her left hand to the boards of her bed and spent the night suffering tortures. When discovered she was unconscious. She was taken to a hospital in a critical condition.

She said that out of love for Christ she voluntarily crucified herself.

JEFFRIES BLUFFS CREW.

Wanted to Sleep and Did Sleep Regardless of Regulations.

Because railroad and Pullman employees were afraid of the retired champion pugilist of the world, James J. Jeffries, and his party, which stopped at Convention hall Tuesday night, were allowed to sleep in the private sleeper in the Chicago Great Western yards until nearly noon Tuesday.

The Jeffries company played in Des Moines Monday night. The Great Western was engaged to handle the party to Kansas City. The show continued too late to allow a regular train to carry the company. Accordingly a special train was engaged. The Great Western officials made the special as light as possible, with but a baggage car and a sleeper, and started it out with one of the fastest engines on the road. The train made a good run, knocking two or three hours off the regular schedule.

When Kansas City was reached early Tuesday morning the negro porter awakened the party. Jeffries was interrupted in a dream where he was demolishing "Lil' Abner" Johnson, and didn't like the porter's bad manners. One look from "Big" Jeff and the negro porter was scared out of the car. The Pullman conductor pleaded in vain, but a clenched fist and that crouching attitude which made the big pugilist famous, terrified him.

The Pullman conductor didn't accept the challenge. The great Western official and employees were all notified, but it was unanimously decided not to interfere, and Jeffries, Gotch and the other members of the party slept on, side-racked in front of the Grand Central depot, until 11 o'clock. —Kansas City Journal.

J. M. BRUNER IN ADA.

Former Popular Ada Citizen, Who Now Resides in Fayetteville, Ark., Looking After Local Interests.

Mr. J. M. Bruner of Fayetteville, Ark., is again in the city looking after his city and farm property interests. His friends are always glad to see him at the home of his former residence where he served so valiantly as a town builder during the pioneer days. Mr. Bruner continues to do much for the city, for since the removal of his family to Fayetteville, Ark., for the better health of Mrs. Bruner he has been instrumental in favorably advertising abroad the splendid home advantages of this section. Joe, when happened upon; looked every inch the happy prosperous citizen, and in return for the suggestion of compliment, stated that he was feeling very optimistic, that Ada and section represented permanent prosperity and happiness for a great many people, and that he was intending to engage much time this year in locating good Arkansawyers here around.

Date Crawford in City.

Attorney Date Crawford was in Ada transacting business before the county court. During a little business visit with the News, he related some of the comical sides to the late bank robbery at Stonehill. Mr. Crawford said, partly jestingly, the other earnestly, Mr. Kitchens, our officer is one good one in Pontotoc county at any rate, for he has the saving grace of not boasting and telling the truth, for he frankly states that he was very near the robbers with a steel ball gun, but was careful to remain perfectly still behind a telephone post. There is this about Stonehill. It is either taking on metropolitan proportions or else is regarded as an out of the way hamlet, and at any rate, it is known that its banks have the money. I would not be surprised that the professional criminals were preparing a general rendezvous around in the section of Ada, since it appears to be the general impression that Pontotoc county affords the maximum safety and minimum protection against criminals as far as being caught is concerned.

WILL BUILD BIG DAM.

New York and Boston Capitalists Interested in Mississippi River.

Keokuk, Ia., Jan. 9.—It was announced here yesterday that a syndicate of New York and Boston capitalists have undertaken to finance the erection of the second largest dam in the world, which will span the Mississippi river at this point. Contracts have been taken by three St. Louis concerns to furnish power from the dam to nearby cities and the work of building the dam is to begin immediately under the supervision of the war department. The estimated cost of the dam is $15,000,000.

Advice

We have recently established in the News Building a REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE and LOAN AGENCY and active and constant attention will be given to all business entrusted to our care. We propose to line up our agency along with the growth and advancement of the city, and we want to make your business acquaintance.

Real Estate

We make a specialty of PUSHING property listed with our agency. We do not make a note of it or a memorandum, and forget it, but use printers ink to promote its early and sure sale. It pays to advertise. We preach that sort of doctrine and practice it as well. Property listed with us will be advertised, and if there is anything doing at all in the real estate transfers we are busy too. We have at the present date some pretty bargains in Ada stuff which you may see advertised in another column of this issue of the News. If you want to sell list with us today.

Insurance

The WEAVER FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY was the first established in Ada, and during these nearly 10 years every claim has been promptly adjusted, to the entire satisfaction of the policy holder. This is not a bad record. This is true because only the best and strongest companies have been represented. Among these are: The Royal, New York Underwriters, the Niagara, and the Phenix. These are as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar. PROMPTNESS is the watch-word. You can make no mistake by selecting any of these to carry your risk.

Loans

We are at present arranging to represent leading loan companies, and expect to be prepared at an early date to take care of applications for loans on city or farm property.

For County Treasurer.

The World of Labor.

will settle the wage controversy between the Illinois Central and the telegraphers in its employ. This is the first of the many wage controversies that will be considered by
the railroad officials, and is said to
mean that in all others arbitration
will be used to settle the differences.
The Illinois Central case will be the precedent. The questions to be arbitrated are the number of hours in a
day's work, wages to be paid, and
rates for overtime and Sunday work.
The carmen employed by the Great Central Railway Company have gained
one point in the dispute which
threatened to cause a strike. In Manchester, Sheffield, Leeds, Nottingham
and other large centers in England
served by that railway. The men asked that their hours and rates of pay
should be made to correspond
with those given to London and Northwestern men, and they complained that requests to interview
the directors had always been refused.
The cause for complaint on the
latter ground has been removed by
the arrangement of a meeting.

A new labor agreement which will
have an important effect on the future of the diamond trade has just been formed at Amsterdam, Holland,
the chief diamond cutting center of the world. Under the new agreement
the manufacturers are allowed to introduce 2,200 apprentices into the
factories in the next five years. The consent of the union to the introduction of the large number of new apprentices was given only after the Amsterdam manufacturers had agreed
to follow the New York City manufacturers in recognizing an eight-
hour day.

Life is a Funny Thing.

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against
his will. During his stay on earth
his times is spent in one continuous
round of contraries and misunder-
standings by the balance of our species. In his infancy he is an angel;
in his boyhood he is a devil, in his
manhood he is everything from a lizard up; in his studies he is an attorney; if he raises a family he is a chump; if he raises a small
check he is a thief, and then the law
raises the devil with him; if he is a poor man he is a poor manager and
has no sense; if he is a rich man
he is dishonest, but considered smart;
if he is in politics he is a grafter and a crook; if he is out of politics he can't place him, as he is an undesirable citizen; if he goes to church
he is a hypocrite; if he stays away
from church he is a sinner and damned; if he donates to foreign missions he does it for show; if he does
not he is stingy and a tightwad.
When he first comes into the world
everybody wants to kiss him—before
he goes out everybody wants to kick
him. If he dies young there was a
to a ripe old age he is simply in
the way and living to save funeral
expenses. Life is a funny road, but we all like to travel it just the same.—Ex.

New York, Jan. 9.—Mayor Gaynor
maintained his reputation for political whimsicalities tonight by appoint-
to succeed Dr. Thomas A. Darlington as health commissioner. The appointee is Ernest J. Lederle, who resigns a position as consulting sanitary engineer with the state and
him $15,000 a year. His position as health commissioner carries a salary
of half that amount. Mr. Lederle is an expert chemist, but he is not a doctor of medicine.

Receive Less Than Seven Dollars a Week.

That the telephone operators of the state as a whole are greatly under-
paid, and at an unequal ratio with
other lines of work when the degree
of skill is compared, is the assertion of Charles L. Daugherty, com-
the matter Saturday, Mr. Daugherty
referred to his annual report for
last year in which an extensive report on the condition of telephone
operators is made, and said:

"A thorough investigation of the condition of the operators employed
by the telephone companies of the
last year. It was found that while the sanitary conditions were good,
the wages paid the help were absolutely inadequate when it was considered that many of the girls had
no home, and in order to make a bare living, were compelled to live
in small, poorly ventilated rooms,
enjoying no advantages which would permit them to better themselves.

out an existence they were compelled
to stint themselves in food and clothing, and after their hard day's work,
many were forced to do their own
cooking, washing and menial labor.

"It is therefore easily seen that
instead of having opportunities to better their mental, moral, and physical growth—opportunities that should
particularly belong to girls who must
earn their own living—the contrary
is more likely.

"There are employed in Oklahoma
1,000 operators, and of this number 1013 of them receive less than $7.00
a week, although they are compelled
to work seven days a week at an average of nine hours a day. A most
objectionable feature of their work
is that many of them are compelled
to leave duty between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock at night.

"In my investigation of the state, I found that practically every class of
labor in it had an opportunity to save a certain portion of their wages.
This, however, would not apply to
the telephone operators because of
the small salaries which they receive, placing their cost of living at
a point which renders it practically
impossible to save from their wages

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—Miss Laurie Livandias, member of a prominent French family here, and
three associates charged with conspiracy and participating in the
smuggling of Chinese are today making a desperate attempt through
counsel to resist being taken to Brownsville where they are under indictment.

The girl admits making a midnight
trip to Lake Ponchartrain with Nic Strotekes, alleged ring leader of the conspirators and having seen Chinese
landed from a schooner which
brought them from Matamoros, Mex.,
via Galveston. A government spy who worked with the smugglers, is the chief witness. The authorities say they expect to take the accused to Brownsville for trial.

Reported That J. P. Morgan Is Promoting $200,000,000 Scheme.

Christiana, Jan. 10.—It is reported that J. P. Morgan of New York and the Cuthbertson of Berlin are planning a world-wide trust in the nitrate
industry with a capital of $200,000,- 000. It is understood that the syndicate intends to purchase all the saltpeter mines in Chile as well as the
nitrate works in Norway, where $20-000,000 is invested. The scheme, it is said, has not passed the stage of preliminary discussion and skepti-
here.

The leading Norwegian nitrate men
are now in Berlin, where the international administrative board is holding its annual meeting.

Knife Blade in His Nose 22 Years.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 10.—Believing
he was suffering from catarrh, E. D.
Stegall, Southern Pacific roundhouse foreman at Valentine, came to El Paso today for treatment. The physician who attended him removed from his nose a knife blade two inches long. Stegall suffered an accident twenty-two years ago when
the blade entered his nose, where
it had been ever since.

ENGINEER STARTS IN SCATTER-ING MONEY.

Car Coupler and Is Now Getting Rid of It.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The wild extrava-
gances of Henry C. Ostermann, Chicago's champion champagne operator, and big tip giver, are still the talk of the waiters and bartenders
in the restaurants and buffets he has
is one of the few customers they
have known who have tossed $10 bills about as mos: tipsters do dimes and quarters. And now it is understood that Ostermann will turn the golden stream on Paris.

Ostermann's announcement, made
the week before Christmas, that he was about to descend on Paris and
show the boulevards what real spending is, has brought sorrow to many gay lighted cafes. At that time he admitted that he had understood that
there were some pretty fast sappers
in Paris, but he modestly said that he felt good for a month at least
there and that he was sure that almost all Paris would know he was in town after a few hours.

"I don't speak French," he said,
"but let me get a few friends and
there will be something doing from Montmartre to the Place Vendome."

While he was making this declaration his waiter in Dejonghe's was bringing in silver tubs filled with
ice in which were resting silver tipped
bottle of French titles. And this same waiter was handed a tenner
for his trouble. Then more wine followed, and more, and more, and every time the waiter's personal fee
was forthcoming. Finally Ostermann
decided that the orchestra was too far away and a $100 bill made the
members all agree they were really
too far away from the side of "such
a fine, liberal man." So the entire orchestra took their instruments and
played for the special benefit of the Ostermann party until the 1 o'clock
ordinance came into effect and the place had to be closed. Then Ostermann lined up every waiter in the place and each received a bill. Some of them hadn't been able to do a single thing for the giver during his stay in the restaurant, but they all
took the tips without hesitation.

Ostermann on the last day of November appeared in the Burns Hotel in Detroit, and before he left every waiter, bartender, bellboy, cham-bermaid and scrub woman in the
place had all the money they wanted
for their Christmas shopping. He
would buy a bottle of wine, lay down
a twenty dollar bill, and leave the change. He was so sorry for an old woman who was washing the floor
in the corridor that he gave her a twenty and she almost fainted. She prays for him every night since, so
she says, so perhaps it was not extravagance. He met a minister, he had known in former years and made him a present of $50 for his church.
The news of the doing spread all
over Detroit and a guard of detectives attached themselves to his train
to see that no one got his whole
roll at one time.

A few months ago Walla Walla, Wash., was dazzled by the gold and
yellowbacked bills he threw into the
air at various restaurants and salons. On his return to Chicago Ostermann said that the story had been swelled up, but in the light of more recent spendings it is easily believed that all the truth perhaps was not told of his gay life in Walla Walla.

Ostermann formerly was an engineer. With an inventive mind he modeled a car coupler which made
good as soon as it was offered. He formed a company which bears his
name, located at Pullman, a suburb
of Chicago, where large returns are
being received for its manufacture.
The directors of this company last week told Ostermann he would have to buy or sell. The notoriety their president had brought them by his lavish tipplings was too much. They were afraid of the credit of the concern. Ostermann sold. He received

TAPES FRIENDS WARN HIM OF INSURGENTS.

Insurgents and Progressives Will Oppose Second Term in White House.

By Tav.
Special to News.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Warned by
his friends that the real insurgents
of the house and the real progressives of the Senate will oppose his renomination for a second term in the White House, President Taft has determined to rid the republican party
of all "undesirables" without further ado and thus avoid interference
later on.

The action of the president in reaching a final decision as to progressives and insurgents is thought to
be directly due to information supplied by Senator Aldrich, Speaker
Cannon and other reactionary leaders,
with whom the president is co-operating and in whom he has the greatest confidence. The import of their advice was to the effect that the progressives and insurgents are involved in what practically amounts
to a conspiracy to interfere with Mr.
Taft's ambition to succeed himself
as president, this being the fourth
plot against the chief executive that
has been uncovered by the reactionary sleuths since March 4 last.

After having given the matter
much careful consideration, the president has come to the conclusion that
the views of his friends are well
founded, and he has decided to act
without further waste of time.

"All those insurgents who remained on the warpath after the passage
of the tariff bill must be driven out
of public life," is the command that
has been issued from standpat headquarters. "They are preaching demonstration doctrine abroad, and are therefore democrats. Annihilate them to the last man."

The writer can give no clearer
idea of the nature of the warfare
that is now waging, than by reviewing, briefly, the rules that are being followed by the standpaters in their treatment of the outlaws:

1. Recommendations of insurgents
as to appointments to federal positions within their districts are receiving no consideration.

2. Officeholders appointed upon the recommendation of insurgents
are to be gradually supplanted by
men satisfactory to the "standpat"
element of Congressional districts.

3. Every possible endeavor is being made to secure the defeat of insurgent candidates in the republican primaries.

4. In instances of insurgent candidates winning the congressional nominations from standpaters, the
latter are to bolt and allow democrats to win.

5. Insurgents are to be prevented from securing the appropriation
of public money for the construction of public buildings or bridges
within their districts.

6. There are to be decreased appropriations for all government institutions, such as agricultural experiment stations, arsenals, navy
yards, forts, etc., located in district
represented in congress by insurgents. Economy will be cited as reason decreases.

7. Appropriations for waterway improvements in progressive territory are to be limited, and if possible, prevented.

8. Bills providing for progressive legislation, when introduced by insurgents, will be referred to committees backed by Speaker Cannon,
where the measures will die.

9. Insurgents desiring the floor for the purpose of pointing out the iniquities of the standpat organization will not be recognized by the speaker of the House if recognition
can possibly be avoided.

10. Insurgents in the House have been appointed to unimportant committees.

By working systematically along
the lines indicated, the standpaters
hope to humiliate the progressives
in Congress, weaken them in the eyes of their constituents at home,
and to finally retire them to private
life.

The insurgents and progressives
are practically at the mercy of their foes now. While in Washington they are in the enemy's country. They are doing little more than to lie close
to their guns, all communication between them and the white house having been severed. In the war of politics, the public's money is the ammunition which counts, and of this
the standpaters are in complete possession.

place in the congressional elections
this fall, particularly in the west,
which the insurgents regard as their
"home" territory.

The pastors and the laymen of the several churches of Ada are requested to assemble at the First Presbyterian church, Tuesday at 7:15 p. m. for a conference with representatives of the Laymen's Movement from Oklahoma City concerning the Great Laymen's Conference to be held in Oklahoma City Feb. 15-17. This meeting is for the purpose of beginning preparation for this conference. The general committee of the organized Laymen's Movement for the United States arranged sometime ago for a series of conferences to be held in every part of the nation and of a great Laymen's Congress to be held in Chicago in May. Noted leaders of the several denominations of the nation are to have places on the program of these conferences. The meeting in Oklahoma City in February for which plans are now being made by the several churches of the city and of the state, should be one of the greatest of the series and should bring a great forward movement and as signal inspiration to all the churches of the great, new state. It is expected that the citizens of Ada will not be lacking in interest in this movement since they have not yet been found lagging when an important interest made its appeal to them. Let every man interested in the welfare of the church and of Christianity be present at the meeting Tuesday evening. Mr. H. B. Johnson and Rev. J. E. Olach of Oklahoma City will be present to speak and counsel with us.

A. L. BULLOCK OF ROFF IS THE JUDGE TODAY.

The case of Gertrude Case vs. Duke Stone is being tried this afternoon. This case was tried during the last term of court and the county judge being disqualified of his own motion, the attorneys were asked to select another judge to try the case. Judge A. L. Bullock of Roff, was agreed to by the attorneys.

The county judge has been busy today with probate matters.

EXHIBITION BEGINS TODAY.

Beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon the pictures which are intended for the walls of the public and normal schools will be shown at the Christian church as was stated in these columns a few days ago. An admission of 10 cents and 15 cents will be charged to see this collection of pictures which represents two hundred subjects, and the proceeds derived from the exhibition will be used to purchase the pictures for the walls of the local schools.

They may be seen from 3 to 5 today and from 7 to 10 tonight.

Zelaya to Be Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Former President Zelaya of Nicaragua, if his extradition from Mexico is asked for, will be treated as any other foreign citizen in the later republic, existing treaties between Mexico and Nicaragua and the Mexican laws on the subject being taken into careful consideration. This was the declaration of Senor De la Barra, ambassador from Mexico to the United States, who arrived here today, on his return from his country.

Absolutely no change in the friendly feeling between Mexico and United States has taken place, according to Senor De la Barra. The two countries are as one, he asserted, in their desire to bring about a resumption of peaceful conditions in Nicaragua.

The ambassador tomorrow will pay his respects to Secretary Knox and possibly arrange a date for a conference on the future joint action of Mexico and the United States as regards Nicaragua.

No Suspects Captured.

Up to this afternoon no suspects of the First State bank of Stonewall attempted robbery have been caught. Several officers are hunting for them.

Wants to Know Who Murdered Groce and Cannon—President Grieved at Diaz's Death.

Managua, Nic., Jan. 9.—President Madriz is greatly cast down by the death of General Fornos Diaz.

General Diaz was a warm friend of Madriz, and it would have been possible for the president and the representative of the provisional government to go over the whole situation with some expectation of an amicable agreement.

Dr. Madriz is hopeful of the early appointment of a delegate to take the place of General Diaz, but he fears that the new peace envoy will represent only the liberal element of the revolutionists. Word has come to him that the conservatives, led by General Chamorro, mean to continue fighting and he has been warned that Chamorro and his army are advancing through the department of Chontales toward Managua. The government, however, is ready to oppose the advance at La Mango.

According to the advices received here a split has occurred in the ranks of the revolutionists, and it is believed that one faction will reject all overtures of peace. President Madriz has ordered court proceedings to be instituted for the purpose of punishing whoever was responsible for the execution of the Americans Groce and Cannon. As ex-President Zelaya does not appear officially in the records of the court martial, the responsibility cannot be fixed on him. But possibly some official will be found guilty, probably Salomon Selva, the prosecuting attorney who officiated at the trial. He may, however, produce insecuting a lawyer who officiated at the congress might order the trial of Zelaya.

Ballinger, Tex. Jan. 9.—F. B. Kimbler, living in the northern part of this county, killed his wife, six year old son and his three-year-old daughter, seriously wounded his niece, aged 20, and ended his own life by cutting his throat today.

Kimbler had been in bad health but got up at the usual time and was assisting his wife in making fires. He stepped out and secured a hatchet ostensibly to cut kindling. Returning to the house he said:

"Wife, we have all got to go," and killed her. Going over to the bed, where the children were still asleep, he attacked them also. Then he entered his niece's room and struck her. By this time a nephew of Kimbler was aroused and he and the wounded young woman made their escape.

Returning to the room where his wife lay unconscious on the floor, Kimbler used a pocket knife to end his own life. Mrs. Kimbler and the baby lived for five or six hours, but the six-year-old boy was instantly killed. The young woman's recovery is doubtful. Kimbler was a successful farmer.

EXPLAINING COTTON SHORTAGE

Dallas Agricultural Expert Before House Committee.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The cotton crop for the year 1909 is going to be the smallest since 1899, according to a statement of W. D. Hunter of Dallas, Tex., expert of the Department of Agriculture.

"It is due," said he in addressing the House committee on agriculture today, "to the weevil in Louisiana and in portions of Arkansas and Mississippi and to the extreme dry weather in Texas." The boll weevil, he declared, would undoubtedly cause a redistribution of production of cotton, first in large areas. What were large centers of production formerly, he said, were going to show a reduction, and more than that, there would be a redistribution of the smallest plantations.

"In the large areas," he continued, "the production is going to fall off. According to all we know about fighting the boll weevil cotton can not be planted profitably in black lands with poor drainage. But the soil and other conditions in certain parts of almost every plantation in the South will permit the planter to continue to raise cotton profitably despite the boll weevil. Recent experiments with a new kind of poison—powdered arsenate of lead—seem to indicate that even where the weevil is most numerous a certain degree of control may be obtained.

STANWOOD, COTTON MAN, DEAD.

Well-Known Buyer at Boston—Formerly Operated at New Orleans.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 10.—Francis Coolidge Stanwood, a well known cotton buyer of this city, died early this morning at his home here. He had been ill since Thursday. Mr. Stanwood was born Sept. 29, 1851, and was the son of Lemuel Stanwood and Carolina Louisa Coolidge. He attended the Boston Latin school and shortly after graduating went South as cotton buyer for Ellerton L. Dorr & Co. of State street. Later he formed a partnership with his brother, Lemuel Stanwood. From 1873 to 1886 Mr. Stanwood made his home in New Orleans and Galveston, returning to Boston in 1888, when his brother's death necessitated his taking charge of the Boston business.

IS JUST TO PLEASE THE EYE.

Why Rejoices Use of Bleached Flour Is Decreasing.

Washington, Jan. 9.—"It is just to please the eye. No good can come from making flour white," declared Chemist Wiley of the department of agriculture. "You can not find any great amount of bleached flour going into interstate commerce at all now. I can tell the change now by the bread. Every time I cut a loaf of the bread I rejoice because instead of its having the whiteness of a corpse, it has that beautiful delicate amber tint that all bread ought to have. The electricity was the agent which produced the bleaching material."

"Several cases are now pending against millers, and I do not betray any confidence of the millers when I say that the fight on this case is made chiefly by the men who are selling the machinery. The millers themselves would not fight it for a moment if left to them, but the men who are making this bleaching machinery have been hurt. The bakers of the United States were always opposed to bleached flour. They knew the flour was injured by the process."

GIRL CRUCIFIXES HERSELF.

Rome, Jan. 10.—A servant girl in Turin became possessed lately of a religious mania. The woman who employed her found her crucified. The girl, after placing thorns in her hair and inflicting a severe wound on her chest, nailed her feet and her left hand to the boards of her bed and spent the night suffering tortures. When discovered she was unconscious. She was taken to a hospital in a critical condition. She said that out of love for Christ she voluntarily crucified herself.

JEFFRIES BLUFFS CREW.

Because railroad and Pullman employees were afraid of the retired champion pugilist of the world, James J. Jeffries, and his party, which showed at Convention hall Tuesday night, were allowed to sleep in the private sleeper in the Chicago Great Western yards until nearly noon, Tuesday.

The Jeffries company played in Des Moines Monday night. The Great Western was engaged to handle the party to Kansas City. The show continued too late to allow a regular train to carry the company. Accordingly a special train was engaged. The Great Western officials made the special as light as possible, with but a baggage car and a sleeper, and started it out with one of the fastest engines on the road. The train made a good run, knocking two or three hours off the regular schedule.

When Kansas City was reached early Tuesday morning the negro porter awakened the party. Jeffries was interrupted in a dream where he was demolishing "Lil Abub" Johnson, and didn't like the porter's bad manners. One look from "big Jeff" and the negro porter was scared out of the car. The Pullman conductor pleaded in vain, but a clenched fist and that crouching attitude which made the big pugilist famous, terrified him.

The Pullman conductor didn't accept the challenge. The great Western official and employees were all notified, but it was unanimously decided not to interfere, and Jeffries, Gutch and the other members of the party slept on, sidetracked in front of the Grand Central depot, until 11 o'clock.—Kansas City Journal.

J. M. BRUNER IN ADA.

Mr. J. M. Bruner of Fayetteville, Ark., is again in the city looking after his city and farm property interests. His friends are always glad to see him at the home of his former residence where he served so valiantly as a town builder during the pioneer days. Mr. Bruner continues to do much for the city, for since the removal of his family to Fayetteville, Ark., for the better health of Mrs. Bruner he has been instrumental in favorably advertising abroad the splendid home advantages of this section. Joe, when happened upon, looked every inch the happy prosperous citizen, and in return for the suggestion of compliment, stated that he was feeling very optimistic, that Ada and section represented permanent prosperity and happiness for a great many people, and that he was intending to engage much time this year in locating good Arkansas lawyers here around.

Date Crawford in City.

Attorney Date Crawford was in Ada, transacting business before the county court. During a little business visit with the News, he related some of the comical sides to the late bank robbery at Stonewall. Mr. Crawford said, partly jestingly, the other earnestly, Mr. Kitchens, our officer is one good one in Pontotoc county at any rate, for he has the saving grace of not boasting and telling the truth, for he frankly states that he was very near the robbers with a steel ball gun, but was careful to remain perfectly still behind a telephone post. There is this about Stonewall, it is either taking on metropolitan proportions or else is regarded as an out of the way hamlet, and at any rate, it is known that its banks have the money. I would not be surprised that the professional criminals were preparing a general rendezvous around in the section of Ada, since it appears to be the general impression that Pontotoc county affords the maximum safety and minimum protection against criminals as far as being caught is concerned."

WILL BUILD BIG DAM.

New York and Boston Capitalists Interested in Mississippi River.

Keokuk, Ia., Jan. 9.—It was announced here yesterday that a syndicate of New York and Boston capitalists have undertaken to finance the erection of the second largest dam in the world, which will span the Mississippi river at this point. Contracts have been taken by three St. Louis concerns to furnish power from the dam to nearby cities and the work of building the dam is to begin immediately under the supervision of the war department. The estimated cost of the dam is $15,000,000.

Advice We have recently established in the News Building a REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE and LOAN AGENCY and active and constant attention will be given to all business entrusted to our care. We propose to line up our agency along with the growth and advancement of the city, and we want to make your business acquaintance.

Real Estate We make a specialty of PUSHING property listed with our agency. We do not make a note of it on a memorandum, and forget it, but use printers ink to promote its early and sure sale. It pays to advertise. We preach that sort of doctrine and practice it as well. Property listed with us will be advertised, and if there is anything doing at all in the real estate transfers we are busy too. We have at the present date some pretty bargains in Ada stuff which you may see advertised in another column of this issue of the News. If you want to sell list with us today.

Insurance The WEAVER FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY was the first established in Ada, and during these nearly 10 years every claim has been promptly adjusted, to the entire satisfaction of the policy holder. This is not a bad record. This is true because only the best and strongest companies have been represented. Among these are: The Royal, New York Underwriters, the Niagara, and the Phenix. These are as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar. PROMPTNESS is the watch-word. You can make no mistake by selecting any of these to carry your risk.

Loans We are at present arranging to represent leading loan companies, and expect to be prepared at an early date to take care of applications for loans on city or farm property
